United drive activity starts

With former Lieutenant Governor Paul Simon serving as kickoff speaker here Tuesday night, the Tri-Cities Area United Way campaign has begun and solicitation of pledges is in progress. At least $400,000 is being sought.

Partial reports cited at the dinner at South High School showed some basis for the hope that the 18-agency fund drive can reach its goal, after six straight failures.

Nasir, Salvation Army Capt. Ronald Kerley, who offered prayers; and Mesdames Kelly, Winter, Pulianas, Kerley and Nasir.

Names of presidents and chairmen during the 30-year history of local united giving were read to the gathering. A film on the United Way was shown before the speaking program.

Fr. Mattingly to mark 40th year

The Rev. Lawrence Mattingly will celebrate mass at 3:30 Sunday afternoon, Oct. 7, at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church where he has been pastor for 21 years.

A native of Paris, Ill., Father Mattingly was ordained June 10, 1953.

News notes

Interior Secretary Rogers C. B. Morton told western governors this week he favors rationing of heating oil this winter but even with such a step there are "people who are going to be cold."

The U. S. Senate voted 81-4 Monday to add $15 million and provide 12 inches of eight cents for each school lunch. Aid of 10 cents per lunch is favored by the House.

Mrs. Billie Jean King, conqueror of Bobby Riggs in a nationally televised tennis match, said this week there will be no repeat of the "battle of the sexes."

Skyab II astronaut Alan Bean, Owen Garriott and Jack Lousma returned to earth, safely Tuesday after spending a record 59½ days in space aboard an orbiting laboratory.

The Postal Service Tuesday formally proposed rate increases averaging 25 per cent, including two-cent increases for letters to ten cents an ounce, postcards to eight cents and airmail to 13 cents.

Treasury Secretary George Shultz said Tuesday foreign trade and international payments accounts of the U. S. will move "into the black" next year following big deficits in recent months.

Vice President Spiro Agnew, told Tuesday that a case involving him will be presented to a federal grand jury starting today, asked the House of Representatives to begin a full inquiry. President Nixon asked that the public give Agnew the same "presumption of innocence" owed to all citizens not convicted of wrongdoing.

U. S.-made new car sales rose 34 per cent during Sept. 11-20 compared to the same period a year ago.

The Postal Service Tuesday formally proposed rate increases averaging 25 per cent, including two-cent increases for letters to ten cents an ounce, postcards to eight cents and airmail to 13 cents.

California Gov. Ronald Reagan Tuesday said he would not support a bill to close stations from midnight to 5 a.m.

$5.10 treatment rate confirmed by council

By HARRY BARNES
Press-Record Staff Writer
Sale of a $4.1 million revenue bond issue to finance the city's share of cost in building its secondary sewage treatment plant was authorized by the Granite City Council Monday night.

The bond ordinance supplants one passed a year ago to permit revision of financing problems. The council at the same time gave final passage to a new schedule of sewer rental fees, which will increase the charge against householders from $2.70 to $5.10 per quarter.

Severer rental and treatment fees to be paid by larger users, based on the gallonage of water used, also is incorporated in the new rate schedule.

Gasoline stations open here but may run short of fuel

"At the rate we're pumping gasoline this morning, we are liable to be closed before the weekend—not as part of a formal shutdown move, but from a lack of gasoline."

Gasoline dealers around the Quad-Cities found themselves besieged by motorists wanting fill-ups when they opened for business this morning. And many were congested last night after a Missouri shutdown decision was announced.

At least 15 cars were waiting in line at Veski's Station, 2200 Ponton Road, today and 10 drivers waited to get gasoline at O'Brien Tire and Battery Service, 3824 Nameoki Road.

Similar scenes were reported at many local retail dealers starting at an early hour today as Quad-Cities who work in St. Louis sought enough fuel to ensure a return trip home this evening.

Mild panic swept through the St. Louis area last night after it was reported that 800 members of the Missouri Gasoline Dealers Association had voted to close stations from midnight to 5 a.m.

last night until next Tuesday midnight.

Dealers have cited rising prices from suppliers while retail prices are frozen.

A decision to allow a one or two cent increase in price per gallon is expected today from the Cost of Living Council, plus a "flow-through" price which may be passed along to the customer, according to Tim McCormick, of Millstadt, business representative for the Illinois Gas Dealers Association.

McCormick said Illinois has "no plans to join Missouri in the shutdown."

New government council would have vast power

With support primarily from Missouri, a Metropolitan Area Task Force made a strong push Tuesday to create a St. Louis Area Council of Governments.

Schermer named to Port Authority

Avery Schermer, president of Schermer Brothers Market in Madison, has been appointed by Gov. Daniel Walker.

Schermer's appointment is one of four by the governor. The other three members are appointed on recommendations by the mayors of Granite City, Madison and Venice.

The term of Harold Fischer, vice-chairman of the First Granite City National Bank and now president of the port board, expired in June this year. Board members are appointed to three-year terms and remain in the post until a successor is appointed.

Dennis Nelson traffic victim

A boy who was killed when struck by a truck on Chouteau Island Sunday evening was identified by his father at a funeral home in Granite City Monday afternoon.

The victim was Dennis Leon Nelson, 15, of 4416 Nameoki Road, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Leon (Vina) Nelson. The father said the boy left home between 2 and 3 p.m. Sunday to visit friends.

He and several youths then were taken in a friend's father's truck to watch the trail bike races on Chouteau Island.

When the friends were ready to leave, the Nelson boy told them he wanted to stay and would walk home, authorities learned. They left him at the races.

The boy was walking on the south levee of the island at 8 p.m. when struck by the truck of Leland Jones, Rural Route Two, Box 835, Granite City, according to sheriff's deputies.

lagging behind many other major areas.

Although it was stressed that the new agency would not take away all local governmental rights, concern is being voiced by some individuals that it would have an excessive degree of power.

The 36-member task force was appointed 14 months ago by the governors of the two states to study Gateway Council needs. Its report Tuesday concludes that Gateway lacks adequate power, including direct authority to enforce its decisions for and against land usage proposals.

The merged bodies would not become a "super government" with taxing power but could move into such direct activities: airports, bridges, tunnels, wharves, docks, harbors, warehouses, grain elevators, commodity and other storage facilities, sewage disposal, passenger facilities and all types of transportation terminals.

The new group would have planning powers in airports, transportation, health, air and water quality, solid waste disposal, job training, housing, land use and law enforcement.

Membership would total 14 from each state; 22 would be elected officials and six would be appointed. A two-thirds vote of members from either state could veto council action.

Granite City, East St. Louis, Belleville and Alton would each have one member and there would be two representatives each from Madison and St. Clair Counties and one each from Monroe and Clinton counties.

Each state also would send non-voting members from certain state and local agencies.

East St. Louis Mayor James Williams said the new body could aid in solving regional problems.

Public aid cut due

The Illinois Department of Public Aid plans to implement a new flat grant system of payments to the Aid to Families with Dependent Children program beginning Monday. The Department said that 15 percent of AFDC recipients will receive less money each month under the new system.

A lawsuit was filed by welfare rights organizations in U.S. District Court Monday. The suit contends that the new flat grant system of monthly payments is unconstitutional in that it violates the equal protection clause of the U.S. Constitution as well as various state laws. The suit asks for an injunction delaying the plan which is scheduled to go into effect Monday.

Under the new plan, virtually all special allowances now received by recipients of AFDC will be cut out. While some people will receive slightly more each month, they will be unable to get any help to meet emergencies or other situations, according to the

Granite City Press-Record

Madison County Welfare Rights Organization. Any person whose grant will be reduced by the new system has the right to appeal to the Illinois Department of Public Aid for a fair hearing. If the appeal to the Illinois Department of Public Aid for a fair hearing is filed within 15 days of the date the Department of Public Aid notifies the recipient of a grant reduction, then the grant must be continued at its present level until the outcome of the hearing. Recipients who have received notification from the Illinois Department of Public Aid that their grants will be reduced in October should contact the Madison County Welfare Rights Organization immediately for advice and help in filing an appeal, it was said. Recipients can also appeal by calling their caseworkers and advising them that they wish to appeal the cuts in their grants.

NASSER STRUCKEN

Hurt in accident

Van Darcy, 67, of 2206 Washington Ave., was injured in a two-car accident at Madison Avenue and 20th Street at 12:35 p.m. Tuesday. Larry Dean Tarrant of Alton, the other driver, was not hurt.

Darcy was charged with having no valid driver's license. He was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was treated for lower back pain and respiratory difficulties before being released.

Tax accounting delayed

The county treasurer's office will be unable to respond immediately to the Nameoki Township demand for a full accounting of all tax funds for the township, the Town Board of Auditors of Nameoki Township was informed at its meeting Monday night.

A letter from George Musso, treasurer of the county, was time before a statement can be compiled for the information you wish on the amount of the taxes collected and distributed for Nameoki Township, the amount paid under protest and the interest earned on the investment of funds.

"As you know, my office has been very busy collecting and distributing these county taxes. I do not have the personnel available to work on this immediately," Musso's letter explained.

Nameoki Township Supervisor Louis Whitall had demanded the accounting, charging the county was depositing a portion of the taxes in interest-bearing accounts for later distribution while the township has had to sell anticipation warrants and pay interests on the warrants in order to obtain enough money to operate.

Whitall reported Monday night that enough taxes have been received to pay off a $10,000 anticipation warrant for the town fund and a $10,000 warrant for general assistance but that two warrants for $20,000 each remain unpaid for general assistance.

He charged the distribution of tax funds is lagging far behind the collections.

The board voted to allow the Long Lake Fire Protection District to begin planning and advertise for bids for having additional fire plugs placed in the township.

The board agreed to call for a special public meeting in the near future to transfer $10,000 in revenue sharing funds into a fire plug account for that purpose.

The money was dropped from the first revenue sharing budget after the township attorney advised the township could not enter into agreement with any other governmental body to collect the fund and a $10,000 Schooley presented Monday night explained that under a new state law, such cooperation now is legal.

The township will retain control of the funds and will pay bills incurred by the fire district in the program. About eight fire plugs will be added in the township.

Another opinion was read from Schooley that the town clerk can co-sign revenue sharing checks with the supervisor, even though the town clerk has not been bonded.

Albert Bell, township highway commissioner, said he has contacted the State Highway Department and has requested that guardrails be installed on the Route 208 (McCambridge Avenue) stretch for Madison High School students who walk over the viaduct enroute to school and home.

Carl Macies, township assessor-elect and a member of the Granite City Board of Education, responded to complaints by residents who said pre-school education should be offered for Nameoki Township children.

Skate guard jobs open at park rink
Applications for skate guard jobs at Wilson Park rink position still are being accepted, Harold Brown, park superintendent, said today. The skating season begins Sunday, Oct. 7.

Those applying are required to be residents of the Granite City Park District, 18 years of age and out of high school and must be able to skate, Brown said.

Application forms are available at the Wilson Park office between 9 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Recommend new bids for Dobrey

John Bennett, acting chief of the division of water resource management for the Illinois Department of Transportation, this week requested that a proposed Dobrey Slough Interim drainage project be rebid and that state engineer estimates on the project be reviewed.

State engineers had estimated that the drainage line would cost $84,000 to install. The estimate did not include the cost of any dewatering of ground.

Two bids for the work were received in the September DOT bid opening, the lowest from M. H. Wolfe & Co. of Granite City for $149,936, about 77 per cent over the state estimate.

Other work from C.D. Peters Construction Co. of Granite City at $155,485.

The state routinely rejects bids exceeding the estimate by more than 5 per cent. The legislature appropriated $150,000 for the project.

A spokesman for the Wolfe firm said its bid included dewatering at the originating and terminating points of the new line which its study indicated would be necessary.

Checker Cab Co. closes business

Quadrant residents no longer can call the Checker Cab Company, 1920 State St., for transportation as the owners, Leon "Pat" Myers and his wife, Jane, closed the doors at 6 a.m. this morning.

shutdown. "Owners have told me they intend to pump all the gas they can, but they probably will enjoy a nice weekend off as supply tanks are drained."

No plans for a shutdown have been made by the Quad-City Gasoline Dealers Association, an IGDA affiliated group, according to Earl Bueger of O'Brien Tire and Service, chairman.

The local dealers reorganized last week and requested assistance from the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce in solving their problems connected with Phase 4.

"It is a serious situation," Bueger said today. "Most of our stations are still on quota and it is the end of the month with supplies running out. We won't get any more until new quotas are delivered."

"St. Louis traffic will drain our tanks in no time at the rate we are getting deliveries," he said.

Tuition bearing, Missouri license plates were in evidence this morning at local stations. Motorists clogged the streets starting about 9:30 p.m. yesterday fearing the possible closing of stations here.

Nameoki Road was nearly impassable from nearly 10 p.m. until midnight as traffic lines quickly backed up from the Clark Super 100 station at Washington and Nameoki Road to Jil Avenue, about three blocks away.

Lines of waiting autos later extended to north of the Johnson Road intersection. Similar back-ups were reported near other stations. Off-duty employees called in to work had difficulty reaching their stations because of the heavy traffic.

Motorists were observed several having gasoline cans filled, holding extra gallons of gas—just in case.

former lieutenant governor said, "Sometimes you can solve the big problems by doing the little things."

He addressed the campaign workers, saying, "You are a team here tonight and what your leadership is asking you to do is for the cheers but so a little crumbled boy can have a wheelchair, so a blind old man can have a visiting nurse."

"I hope you are not doing it for the cheers. I know you will be a richer, finer community after this drive," Simon said.

He cautioned against being cynical. Cautious that there is some valid basis for cynicism on occasion, he argued stressed that the only path to solutions is that which involves positive, construction action—both individually and jointly.

MAN IS BEATEN

Jim Wolfe, 5 Park Town West, reported at 3:35 p.m. Tuesday that he was beaten by several youths with wrenches at 25th and Adams streets. Witnesses said a man stood nearby holding a chain while Wolfe was beaten. Wolfe said before he was assaulted, one of the youths threw a soft drink bottle at him from the window of their auto. He suffered bruises to his back.

Building sites studied

A special meeting of the Chouteau Town Board will be held at 9 a.m. Saturday to discuss the qualifications of five prospective sites for construction of a township building and garage.

The special meeting was arranged during a regular session of the board Monday night in which considerable discussion was given the new locations and whether or not they would be suitable for the township's building program.

A previous site on the curve of Route 203 north of Mitchell was abandoned when the Madison County Zoning Board of Appeals rejected a rezoning application.

The new rate schedule will become effective Aug. 1, 1974. Horace Calvo of Granite City, special bond attorney for the sewage treatment program, told the council that he is making every effort to speed up sale of the bonds, and that it may be possible to sell them by the latter part of October.

The bond issue provides that $3,085,000 of the money be used for financing construction of the new treatment plant adjoining the city's primary plant on a site at the Granite City Army Installation.

The remaining $1,015,000 is to be used to refinance outstanding bonds sold in December 1963 to finance the city's primary treatment plant.

Calvo said preparation of a brochure to be circulated among bond houses will begin immediately. Publication of necessary legal notices will require several weeks time, he said.

Of the $3,085,000 in bond funds designated for the secondary sewage treatment program, $650,000 is to be repaid into the city's Sewage Treatment (primary) plant fund from which the city has borrowed to pay engineering fees and preliminary costs of the secondary treatment program.

Another $125,000 of the bond proceeds are to be deposited to a Sewage Plant Bond Reserve Account, and $75,000 is to be deposited in a Sewage Plant Depreciation Account.

In other developments in the city's secondary sewage treatment program, the council:

1. Approved payment of $106,000 as the first bill of the G. L. Tarlton Contracting Co. of St. Louis which is building the secondary treatment plant on a 14-acre site at the Army Installation. Grading work has

Schermer Bros. mark 70th year

Schermer Bros. Market, 1136 Madison Ave., starts its 70th anniversary celebration today, according to Avery and Leo Schermer, co-owners and operators of the business firm which has an enviable record for sustained longevity in the Quad-Cities.

During the six-week observance, many gifts will be offered to customers, Avery Schermer said this week, including a "grand award" of free meat for one year, or up to $26 worth of meat each week.

A cost-free quantity of meat for a month-long period will be awarded to an individual on each of five weeks, plus four gifts each week of a seven-day meat supply and other awards, the supermarket owners said.

been under way at the site since early September.

2. Approved a motion by Alderman R. E. Robertson, chairman of the council's Pollution Plant Committee, to appoint the M.W. Architects and Engineers, Inc., St. Louis, as resident engineer for the secondary plant project. The M. W. firm also served as special city engineer for planning and designing the plant.

3. Heard a report by Mayor Paul Schuler that documents finalizing the city's lease on the Army Installation plant site have been received from the government.

Speedy sale of the bonds will be sought by the city because the $108,000 payment to the Tarlton firm virtually exhausts all available sources for financing the plant construction. Robertson told the council that a meeting should be held soon between the contractor, engineers and city officials to discuss progress on the plant construction pending receipt of money from the bond sale.

Open verdict in auto death

A coroner's jury in Granite City Tuesday returned an open verdict in the death of Joseph Dennis Beasley Jr., 12, of Box 77th, Rural Route Two, Granite City, who was injured fatally when struck by the car of Miss Katherine Hendrix, 17, of Rural Route Two, July 30. The boy was riding his bicycle at the time.

The auto dragged the boy 152 feet after striking him and then the auto struck a tree. Miss Hendrix was injured seriously in the accident.

The jury was unable to determine the cause of the accident because of unverified contributing circumstances, including the speed of the auto.

The boy died of multiple traumatic injuries, according to the autopsy report.

The coroner's jury also returned a verdict of accidental death this week in the death of Robert W. Brooks, 43, of Evansville, Ind., Sept. 6. He was struck by an auto while carrying a bale of hay across the Barn Road intersection and Fairmount Park. The inquest report showed multiple traumatic injuries as the cause of death.

An accidental death also was the verdict in the death of Richard Schermer who died in an auto accident at Interstate 270 and Route 111 last month.

Transfer funds

A special meeting of the Venice Board of Education was held Monday night to transfer $100,000 from the educational fund to the working cash fund, and to transfer the amount from the working cash fund back to the educational fund in a routine bookkeeping transaction.

The money came from a settlement of taxes, according to John Pier, superintendent of schools.

STEAL GUN, TV

A 12-gauge shotgun, a box of shotgun shells, a television, a stereo and several other items were stolen in a burglary at the home of Kenneth Justice, 26 Westwood Drive, reported at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday. A screen was removed from a bathroom window to gain entry. The house was ransacked, Justice said.

Concordia to honor teachers

A total of 500 years of service by 34 members of the Sunday school staff of Concordia Lutheran Church at 23rd Street and Grand Avenue will be recognized at a dinner in the teachers' honor Sunday evening.

H. A. Ameling, superintendent of the Sunday school, and Mrs. Eleanor Weber have compiled the longest terms of service with 27 years each. To honor all staff members and give them inspiration for continued service, Concordia's Board for Christian Education, headed by Edwin Weber as chairman, has invited Dr. Harold Rast, from the Department of Parish Education of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod to speak at the dinner.

Dr. Rast is editor of youth materials published by Concordia Publishing House in St. Louis. He has held his present position for seven years. Previously, Dr. Rast was professor of Old Testament theology at St. Paul's College, Concordia, Mo., and before that he served Lutheran parishes in Chester, Greenville and Quincy, Calif. He is a graduate of Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, from where he also received his doctorate in theology in 1972.

"We feel that we owe so very much to these teachers of our children, and this is a small token of our appreciation," the Rev. Arvin Twietmeyer, Concordia pastor, said today.

Emerson School joins 'Helping Hand' program

Emerson School will take part this year in the "Helping Hand" program, a project designed to offer children aid, if needed, while walking to and from school. It was announced Tuesday evening at the Parent-Teacher Association's first meeting of the season.

Mrs. Jeanette Kienle, president, said cooperation in the helping hand program is being encouraged by the Granite City Police Department.

She noted that red posters, showing a "helping hand," will be displayed in the window or door at homes where the occupants have agreed to offer emergency assistance to youngsters.

Mrs. Kienle suggested that parents instruct their children about the program by showing a poster to the youngster and encouraging him or her to seek help only when the sign is displayed.

Speaker at the meeting was Emerson Principal Alfred Wilson, who discussed the school's participation in the "Newspaper in Curriculum" teaching concept.

He urged parents to become more familiar with the method of teaching through newspaper usage, a practice which has received nationwide attention and acceptance at many schools since started here some years ago.

Wilson also introduced faculty members, including a newcomer to the Emerson staff, Paul Kienle.

Mrs. Carolyn Curtis offered the PTA Prayer and the group was led in singing "America the Beautiful" by Mrs. Mayme Schaeffer.

Miss Nancy Benson's lower primary room won attendance honors for having the highest percentage of parents at the meeting.

A special guest was Mrs. Frank (Vera) Farrow, president of the Granite City Area PTA Council, who invited Emerson unit members to attend a potluck supper and council meeting at 6:15 p.m. today at Lake School.

The Commission on Campus Unrest issued a report warning of a growing crisis on U.S. campuses on Sept. 26, 1970.

Women of Bible is circle topic

Three women of the Bible—Rebecca, Rachel and Dinah—were the subject of a lesson given by Mrs. Ruth Hancock at a meeting of the Every Member Bury Circle of Nameoki United Methodist Church.

Members met Tuesday night in the home of Mrs. Fran Holt, 2105 Garfield Ave., with Mrs. Mary Jane Pester serving as co-hostess.

Plans for the annual bazaar set for Oct. 27 at the church were reviewed. The bazaar will open at 10 a.m. Oct. 27 and will feature a spaghetti supper to be served during the evening hours.

Tickets for the meal currently are being sold by church members, it was announced.

Workshops to complete bazaar items will take place Monday, Oct. 1, and on three additional dates—Oct. 10, Oct. 16 and Oct. 23, circle members were informed.

During the social hour, the birthday of Mrs. Hancock was observed.

SOUL GOSPEL SINGERS. Andrae Crouch (front row seated) and the Disciples, who will appear in concert at 8 p.m. Saturday at Kiel Auditorium Opera House, St. Louis, under the auspices of the Trinity Church of God in Christ, 800 Bissell St., Venice. Tickets are available at Johnson's Music Shop in Granite City, Goldie's in St. Louis and the Kiel box office.

Noted gospel singers at Kiel

Andrae Crouch and the Disciples, a California ensemble considered by many as America's number one soul gospel singing group, will appear in concert Saturday evening at Kiel Auditorium Opera House, 14th and Market streets, St. Louis, under sponsorship of a Venice church.

The Rev. Norvell Woolfolk, pastor of the Trinity Church of God in Christ, 800 Bissell St.,

Venice, said the widely acclaimed soul gospel group will present a public performance at 8 p.m. Saturday at Kiel Auditorium under the auspices of the local church.

Andrae Crouch, leader of the ensemble, was nominated for a Grammy award in 1970 and appeared on the Johnny Carson Show last December. He has written many songs for popular singers, including Pat Bouie and Elvis Presley, the Rev. Woolfolk said.

Several supporting groups and soloists will be featured along with the California ensemble, the minister said.

Tickets, costing $3.50, $4.50 and $5.50 each, may be purchased in advance at Johnson's Music Shop in Granite City, Goldie's Arcade ticket office, 6th and Olive streets, St. Louis, or the Kiel Auditorium box office.

Missionary societies install at Mount Zion

Joint installation ceremonies for new officers of the Day and Evening Women's Missionary societies were held this week at Mount Zion General Baptist Church.

The Rev. and Mrs. George Dougherty, visiting missionaries from Jamaica, were special guests.

Mrs. Dougherty served as installing officer and Mrs. Harriet Phelps presided at the piano, providing music for singing by the congregation prior to the ceremonies.

Officers for the group that meets during the daytime are Mrs. Ella Mae Miskelly, president; Mrs. Mary Goodall, vice-president; Mrs. Betty Warren, secretary and Mrs. Flora Monroe, treasurer.

Those installed to lead the evening organization were Mrs.

Jerry Sharp, president; Mrs. Loretta Gosnell, vice-president; Miss Carolyn Hicks, secretary and Mrs. Beryl Roady, treasurer.

After the candlelight ceremonies, a special duet was sung by Mrs. Miskelly and Mrs. Carolyn Hicks, secretary and Mrs. Beryl Roady, treasurer.

Prayers were offered for missionary work by the guest minister, followed by refreshments served in the church fellowship hall.

Calvary schedules revival meetings

A youth team from Eastern Illinois University will conduct a series of revival meetings at Calvary Baptist Church, 3900 Washington Ave., beginning Friday and continuing through Sunday.

Revival meetings will be held at 7:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday and morning worship will be conducted at 10:45 a.m. Sunday.

Members of the team include Ken Whitten who will preach at the meetings; Terry Walters, music director; Martha Cornett, pianist, and Pam Stamps, social director.

Schuler to address Quad-City ministers

Mayor Paul Schuler of Granite City will present a "State of the Community" address at 9 a.m. Tuesday before members of the Quad-City Ministerial Association. A question and answer period will follow his remarks.

The program will take place at Niedringhaus United Methodist Church, 20th Street and Delmar Avenue.

All ministers in the Quad-City area are being invited to attend the meeting, according to the association president, the Rev.

Donald Bogue, pastor of the United Methodist Church of Madison.

Other items of business to be reviewed at Tuesday's session, include a proposed ministry service at the Madison County Jail in Edwardsville and plans for the annual "Trick or Treat" project to aid the United Nations Children's Emergency Fund (UNICEF).

Progress in the Key '73 program also will be discussed the Rev. Bogue said.

'Rally Day' Sunday at St. John United Church

Morning worship services followed with day-long activities will mark "Rally Day" on Sunday at St. John United Church of Christ, 2801 Nameoki Road, it was announced today by the Rev. Dr. Paul Surbey, pastor.

At both the 9 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. services, pupils in the Sunday school will present "The Living Cross" in conjunction with the sermon messages.

Starting at 2 p.m. and continuing until 5:30 p.m., a family festival will take place at the church. Various games will be played including softball, badminton, football and volleyball; balloons and grab bags will be distributed and ice cream and cold drinks will be served.

A special feature of the day will be a "dunk the preacher" dunking booth.

Also planned are a hole-in-one golf tournament and a horseshoe throwing contest. A potluck dinner will be served at 5:30 p.m. Sunday, with each member requested to bring a salad or dessert. Meat, hot vegetables and drinks will be furnished.

Vesper services will feature the St. John Gospel Quartet and the St. John Youth Singers.

340 to launch balloons Sunday

Hundreds of colorful balloons will be launched about 10:45 a.m. Sunday by members of the Sunday school department of Tri-City Park Tabernacle to help recruit newcomers into the program, the Rev. John Polizzi, pastor, announced today.

Approximately 340 children and adults will participate in the launching event on the church grounds at Clark Street and Maryville Road, the minister said.

Each balloon will contain a signed slip of paper inviting the finder to attend the Tri-City Park Tabernacle's Sunday school program.

Persons returning the enclosed paper will receive a gift, as well as the sender, the Rev. Polizzi said. The individual returning a paper from the most distance point prior to Oct. 28 will be presented a valuable gift, along with the person launching the balloon, he added.

Mrs. Jeanette Kienle, Sunday school superintendent, said the balloon launch project is designed to encourage former members to return to the program and interest new members in attending.

Coach Al Vonder Haar's football Trojans of Madison High will attempt to avenge last year's 45-0 loss to Assumption at 4 p.m. tomorrow at MHS. Madison is without the services of Quarterback Daryl Jones, who this week transferred to another school.

Jones, a 175-pound senior letterman, enrolled at Venice High School.

Starting quarterback will be Emmett Timmons, a 5-10, 175-pound junior, who last week led the Trojans against Marquette of Alto.

Timmons, in that 42-6 loss, completed four passes for 43 yards. Vonder Haar believes Timmons is improving his passing game and has the ability to engineer ground plays as well.

The coach added, "Our morale has increased 100 percent with the return of Ivan Simms." Simms, a 190-pound tackle, was injured in Madison's season opener against Central of St. Louis.

Although he feels his team has improved considerably, Vonder Haar says the Trojans will have to play near-perfect football against the strong Pioneers here Friday.

South racking up soccer shutouts

Gene Baker, new soccer coach at Granite City High School, in his pre-season practice predicted that "the 1973 Warrior team can be competitive with anyone."

This week, he watched the defending state champions post back-to-back victories, 6-0 against St. Dominic here Monday and 5-0 at St. Paul of Highland Tuesday, to top their season record to 7-1.

The Warriors, who have not lost a game since being shut out by New Trier East earlier this month, outshot St. Dominic 10-0 and St. Paul 10-0.

Keith Gehling assisted Mike Matiner and Mike Fry, each of whom made two goals in the first half.

Gehling then rushed to midfield to trap a crossover shot from Don Goldschmidt and kick the ball straight in for the final point of the game.

Goldschmidt, who had scored three goals in the first half, on Tuesday kicked his 14th goal of the season in leading South to its win at St. Paul.

On assists by Dave Sheridan, Rich Reicher and Gehling, Goldschmidt scored three of the five goals. Gehling blasted one in 18 yards out unassisted and Mark Spurr playing in his first varsity soccer game, tallied assisted from 25 yards away.

South seeks its sixth straight shutout win at Assumption.

Big Red at Dallas

Coach Don Coryell's football Cardinals, led by National Football League Offensive Player of the Week Jim Hart, will visit Texas to play the Dallas Cowboys at 1 p.m. Sunday.

Both teams have 2-0 records and are rated as title contenders in their division along with Washington and the New York Giants.

Tackle Ernie McCullum will not have to undergo surgery but will be out four to six weeks, due to a ligament injury suffered in last week's game.

The YMCA Soccer Association paid honor to the late Al Forrester of Granite City this week at the St. Elizabeth Church soccer field.

Jerry Donley, president of the association, explained to the nearly 150 people present the purpose of the ceremony.

"Mr. Forrester, who died May of this year, was a great lover of sports and helped to the youths who played them," Donley said.

"He was one of the first to join in with Helen Mendoza to start the local soccer program 14 years ago."

With the permission of his family and approval by the Soccer Association, the Al Forrester Soccer Division has been named in his honor.

The Pee Wees are the youngest boys in the program. The league is now in seven divisions, with 15 teams and 800 boys, and is still growing.

The invocation was given by Kent Dunn, YMCA associate executive director, and the pledge of allegiance was led by Donley.

It was noted that Mr.

Forrester was a prisoner of war for 3 1/2 years in Japan during World War II.

A long time friend and a pioneer of soccer in Granite City, Everett Demott also spoke about "the life and spirit of Al Forrester."

Present, besides many soccer players in uniform and a number of friends, were his wife, Mrs. Rita Forrester, and youngest daughter, Cindy, a member of the Pink Panther girls' soccer team, who threw out the ball for the start of a scheduled game.

Also present were sisters who reside in St. Louis, Mrs. Norrene Metner, Mrs. Lucille Lange, Miss Rita Forrester and Mrs. Otto Klein.

He also is survived by two other daughters, Mary Ann and Lois, and a son, Jim, a member of the St. Louis junior varsity team.

Mrs. Forrester was later presented a plaque which read, "In memory of Al Forrester, who loved sports, we dedicate the Al Forrester Soccer Division of the Tri-City Area YMCA Soccer Association—Fall 1973."

Record number of race cars likely

Tri-City Speedway will present Saturday night, as its final auto racing program of the year, a special fall super sprint "spectacular" which promises to have some of the Midwest's best known drivers.

Bobby Jones of Hannville, a former sprint car track champion and winner of a 35-lap sprint program here last month, is among the drivers expected.

Promoter Ralph Keisling, said the event promises to attract the largest field of racing cars ever gathered at the speedway, since many of the drivers will be enroute to championship races Sunday at the Champion fairgrounds.

Time trials will begin at 7:30 p.m. and the first heat event will start at 8:30 Saturday.

ALL THE FISH YOU CAN EAT FRIDAY, 8:30 AT GRANTS

Fast-pitch title contest Friday

Livingston and One-Hour Martini will meet at 7 p.m. today at the Granite City Army Installation field for the right to meet the Tri-City Maroons at 7 p.m. Friday for fast-pitch softball tournament honors.

The Maroons, 1971 champions of the meet, scored in the last inning to defeat Livingston 8-7 last night.

On Monday, Livingston beat Marquette 8-5 and the Maroons topped the Eagles 10-4 while garnering 23 hits, including Ed Boone and Garland Horn homers.

On Tuesday, Livingston topped defending champion St. Elizabeth Hospital 10-10 and Marquette topped the Eagles 10-4. Last night, the One-Hour squad blanked St. Elizabeth Hospital 22-12.

The second event will consist of the 30 fastest qualifiers in time trials and the third race will have the slower qualifiers challenging the winner of the previous event.

More than 120 track champions will gather at the fairgrounds, located at the junction of U.S. Route 66 and Illinois Highway 97, to participate in the days activities.

Annual pass, kick competition slated for Saturday at park

The initial step in the national "Pass, Kick and Contest" will take place Saturday morning under supervision of Granite City Jaycees, it was announced today by R. E. Hohl of the Hohl Agency, the local sponsor.

Contests for youngsters eight through 13 years will be held at the Wilson Park soccer field, near the softball diamond at 28th and State streets, commencing at 9 a.m. Saturday.

Registration will start at 8:30 a.m. with competition continuing from 9 a.m. until noon, according to Owen Ross, Jaycee president.

Entry forms may be obtained in advance from the R. E. Hohl Agency, 1122 Madison Ave., or at the registration booth on the day of the contest.

Ross noted that all entry forms must be signed by a parent or guardian. If a boy registers at the contest site, he must be accompanied by a parent or legal guardian to countersign the form in order to compete, the Jaycee officer stressed.

Contestants must be between the ages of eight and 13 years on Jan. 1, 1974, Ross said.

Boys eight, nine and 10, competing in a single category, will use a junior size football. Contestants in the 11 to 13 age level will compete with a regulation size football.

Participation is open to any area boy, Ross said. No cost or purchase is required of a boy, his parent or sponsor to enter or compete, he noted.

During local competition, only ordinary street shoes or sneakers may be worn by the contestants.

Local winners will advance to zone competition, with succeeding victories taking the winners to district, area and national contests.

The national competition will take place at a National Football League playoff game in January.

Gold, silver and bronze trophies will be awarded to top contestants in both age groups, as well as individual and team awards at other levels of competition, Ross said.

Cards win; 3 games out with 4 to play

The St. Louis baseball Cardinals last night won 1-0 over the Philadelphia Phillies in their opening inning after a season slump. After the Chicago game here, the Cardinals will arrive tomorrow for a three-game series to close out the 1973 season.

On Tuesday, Red Schoendienst's Redbirds bowed 4-3 to the Cubs, who rallied for three runs in the ninth and limited a Cardinal rally.

Standings now show New York with six wins and 21 losses, Pittsburgh 7-9, St. Louis 7-8, Montreal 7-8 and Chicago 7-8.

Spalding defends Midwestern title

With Spalding of Pontoon Beach, the newly crowned Tri-City Speedway late model stock car track champion, will attempt to capture his second consecutive Midwest championship Sunday at the Illinois State Fairgrounds in Springfield.

Entitled the "Race of Champions," held on the fairgrounds one mile dirt track, the event pits all speedway champions in Illinois and Missouri against each other, with the winner being declared the Midwest track champion.

Spalding, in claiming the title last year, captured his best race and defeated a stellar field of race drivers to win the annual 35-mile race.

Sunday's schedule, beginning with time trials at 11 a.m., includes three 35-lap racing events, the first being the title race starting at 2 p.m.

The second event will consist of the 30 fastest qualifiers in time trials and the third race will have the slower qualifiers challenging the winner of the previous event.

More than 120 track champions will gather at the fairgrounds, located at the junction of U.S. Route 66 and Illinois Highway 97, to participate in the days activities.

Terry tops South harrier quintet

Harrier Russ Colona completed the 2.7 mile cross-country course at GCHS-South in 14 minutes, 32 seconds to finish behind his Cahokia team defeat the Warrior runners 10-11 Tuesday.

Other South runners included: Jim Hall, 7th; Sam Nesbitt, 9th; Jim Caschetta, 11th; and Don Meagher, 12th.

The cross-country event tomorrow, in which South was to have met Assumption, has been postponed to Monday, Oct. 1.

Marquette tops Trojan harriers

Alton Marquette harriers finished in seven of the top 12 positions Monday afternoon to defeat the Trojans 20-37 at Marston.

Alton's Tom Graham completed the 2.3 mile event second behind Marquette's Rudolph Bradley, who had a time of 14:07 in posting the first cross-country win of his career.

Bradley, a junior, has run second to Graham since the start of the race but with less than a half-mile to go passed him.

Other Madison harriers included John Henke, 7th; Norman Whitehead, 8th; Thornton Wiggins, 9th; and Greg Turner, 12th.

Moran, Elliott score for Chiefs

The football Chiefs of Prather Junior High School totaled 100 yards offensively, 16 passing and 83 rushing, to defeat West Alton for the fourth consecutive year 14-0 here Monday.

Halfback Cliff Moran, the leading rusher with 105 yards in 15 carries, struck paydirt first in the 2nd quarter with a 12-yard run to climax a 60-yard drive.

Defensive End Rich Hunter and Defensive Tackle Mark Lemp downed Alton's quarterback in the end zone for a safety.

Prather's Tony Elliott, with a quarterback sneak, plunged over the middle from the one-yard line to wrap it up later in the fourth quarter.

Inter-City baseball title to be decided Sunday

The Inter-City Baseball League playoff championship game between the Piasa Indians and Mercer will be at Van Preter Park, Sixth Street and Broadway Avenues, East Alton, at 2 p.m. Sunday.

The first game of the best-of-three series was won by Piasa 5-0, but Mercer bounced back Sunday to tie the title series with a 5-3 win.

Ice skate 'Swap Shop' Tuesday at park rink

It's time to get into the attic or basement and dig out those outgrown or discarded ice skates. Harold Brown, superintendent of the Granite City Park District, suggested to local residents today.

Nothing that skating starts only ten days from today at the Wilson Park rink pavilion, the park official said for the seventh consecutive year an ice skate "Swap Shop" will be sponsored by the district as a prelude to the fall-winter skating program.

The swap, buy or sell event will take place between 7 and 9 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 2, at the rink, where tables will be set up in the warming room area to accommodate individuals with skates to display.

In addition to skates, persons having ice hockey equipment to sell or exchange are invited to bring items to the rink Tuesday, Brown said.

The unique trading post has proved a popular attraction in recent years, with local youngsters and adults attending the swap shop for exchanging, buying and selling of outgrown, used or discarded ice skates. A brisk business is usually noted in sizes fitting younger skaters who have outgrown their skates since the previous skating season, he noted.

With more and more local youngsters joining hockey programs, an upsurge in used equipment also is anticipated this year, Brown said.

Public skating sessions at the Wilson Park rink will start Sunday, Oct. 7.

To prepare for the skating season, park district identification cards will be issued at the rink from 1 to 4 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 6.

Residents of the Granite City Park District may obtain ID cards by showing proof of residency, such as a utility bill receipt.

The plasticated cards, costing 50 cents each, enable the bearer to take part in park district programs, including ice skating sessions, at reduced prices.

GC police Explorers win safe-driving road rally

Explorer Post 10-33, sponsored by the Granite City Police Department, won the 1973 Calhoun Mound Council Explorer Grand National Safe-Driving Road Rally during the weekend.

Explorer Dave Schefke drove the winning car and Post 10-33 members Tim Vizer and Dan Sparks served as navigators.

The rally began at 10:30 a.m. at the Fairmount Race Track and ended at the Funderburg Steak House in Granite City at 2:30 p.m.

The course covered 100 miles and included nearly all types of driving and road conditions. The Schefke car made all five check points with the most correct timing to earn first place.

Second place went to Post 57 of Greenville with Explorer Dave Holmen the driver. Third place went to Post 20 of Edwardsville with Explorer Greg Cooper driving.

A police-marked auto-cross course was another big event of the day. A new MX Mustang was driven by all contestants against the clock around a tight hairpin course.

Bill Kretzberg of Edwardsville Post 27 won this event. He had the fastest time with the least penalties and was awarded a road rally jacket for his skill.

Marty Arne, a member of the Southern Illinois Regional Sports Car Club of America, laid out the rally course and Elmer Molitor of the Molitor agency in Collinsville supplied the new Mercury.

Dave Wilson, Explorer program chairman for the Calhoun Mound Council, was coordinator of the event.

South, 5-2 last year, to begin league play

The Fighting Warriors of GCHS South, clubbed by a Southwestern Conference title since 1946, will begin their conference season by playing host to the Tigers of Edwardsville at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the South Football Stadium.

Coech Wayne Williams' team led a shot at the title last year when defeated by Belleville West 36-8, leaving the Warriors with a 5-2 conference record.

Edwardsville, among the smallest schools in the conference, racked up 559 yards of offense sively to upset Collinsville 69-31 last weekend.

Williams told the Press-Record, "I can assure you they won't score 69 points against us. Last year we held them to seven points. Saturday they'll be lucky if we let them get that much."

He admitted that the Tigers are a well-balanced football team and full of surprises. "They have a habit of doing just the opposite of what you would expect them to do."

Cougars to be soccer hosts

The Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville soccer team will open its home season Saturday at 1:30 p.m. at Cougar Field with Rockhurst College of Kansas City.

Rockhurst is 3-0 for the season and has averaged nearly six goals a game.

The SIU kickers opened the 22 game campaign Saturday by turning back the University of Akron 2-0.

The Cougars had a 5-7 in 18 advantage over Akron in shots on goal.

The Cougars' senior striker, Chris Carena, was on the bench in their street clothes, awaiting a possible operation on his right knee. A decision will be made this week on whether or not the operation will be needed. It was the first game in six seasons that the Cougars didn't have a Carena in their lineup.

Starting in Carena's slot was freshman Tim Twellman, who had two shots, wasted on terrific saves by the Zips goalie, Les Pitzer.

The game marked the starting debut of two other freshmen, Chicago's Gene Mishalov and St. Louis' Don O'Sullivan, both performed brilliantly. In addition Guelker received standout performances from veterans Tom Twillman, Tom Galati, Bobby Kessen and Bill Renaut.

Making his first start in goal was senior Chester Kowalewski, credited with nine saves.

TD pass thwarts North soph win

The sophomore football squad of Assumption of East St. Louis, trailing by one point for most of the fourth quarter, connected on a long pass play with 29 seconds remaining in the game to down GCHS North 18-13 Monday at the South Stadium here.

The aerial "bomb" and subsequent run covered 34 yards.

North, behind 12-0 in the first quarter, scored early in the second period on a Greg Corey pass to Running Back Mickey Smith after a 61 yard drive.

Corey's extra point kick failed to go through the uprights and the score at halftime remained 12-6.

Both teams were held scoreless in the third quarter. Corey passed to Smith who scampered 40 yards for a TD in the final period. An extra point kick seemed to assure the Steelers of a 2-0 record.

TEAMS TO TRAVEL
Granite City Little Rascals tackle football squads will compete on the road again this Sunday. The winners Dee Wee team will meet undefeated Belleville at 12:30 p.m. and the Midgets (1-2) will be at Wood River for a 2 p.m. game.

Nipper-Harbin wedding

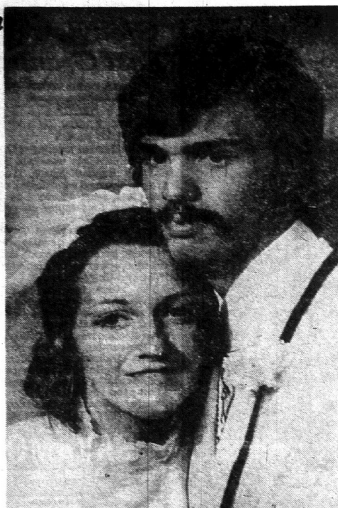

The wedding of Miss Carla Sue Harbin and Jack Ray Nipper was solemnized at 6 p.m. Sept. 14 at the New Hope Baptist Church. The Rev. James Adams officiated.

Parents of the bride are Mrs. Evelyn Mayes, 4101 Melrose Ave., and Thomas D. Harbin of San Jose, Calif. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Merle A. Nipper, Rural Route Two, Granite City.

For her wedding, the former Miss Harbin chose a floor length gown of white satin designed with a high neckline, accented with floral lace. Full length sleeves of dotted swiss were banded at the wrists with lace. A velvet bow secured her elbow length veil of bridal illusion and she carried a nosegay of red and white carnations and baby breath.

Honor attendant was Miss Pat Smart. She selected a formal length gown of red polyester. The fitted bodice was made with short sleeves trimmed with Chantilly lace and a lace collar. She wore satin rosettes with long streamers in her hair and had a white carnation corsage.

Mike Koslowski served the groom as best man.

Kay Lynn Fry becomes Mrs. Jesse F. Brake

Miss Kay Lynn Fry, daughter of Mrs. Charlotte White, Rural Route Two, Granite City, became the bride of Jesse Frank Brake, a son of Mrs. Mary Pogue, 114 Wilson Park Lane, at 7 p.m. Sept. 22 at Nameoki United Methodist Church.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony, performed in a candlelight setting, was the Rev. William D. Foster.

David Long presided at the organ and accompanied Mrs. June Branding, who sang "Till," "The Wedding Song" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was escorted down the white carpeted aisle and given in marriage by her grandfather, Vernie Crider.

For her wedding she chose a gown of white organza over satin made with an Empire bodice of lace. The scoop neckline was adorned with white satin ribbon and a bow and the long sheer sleeves terminated at the wrists with lace cuffs and insertion ribbon.

The decorative lace and ribbon trim formed a panel at the front of the bouffant skirt and a wider border of lace encircled the hemline and chapel train.

She wore a Juliet cap to hold in place a veil of bridal illusion edged in matching lace, and she held a bouquet of white carnations and roses festooned with white satin streamers.

Attending the bride were Miss Robin Smith, maid of honor; Miss Carolyn Casey, Miss Nancy Walsh of St. Louis, Miss Debbie Pinegar and Miss Susan Brake, a sister of the groom, bridesmaids, and Miss Rhonda Crider, a cousin of the bride, junior bridesmaid.

They wore long sleeved gowns with velvet bodices and tiered chiffon skirts, floor length, accented with colored braid.

The honor attendant and junior maid selected dresses fashioned of royal blue and emerald green bodices and white skirts. The bridesmaids were attired in different colored frocks, including cranberry red and pink, purple and orchid, emerald and navy green and royal blue and light blue.

Each wore a Juliet cap of braid in a color to match her gown and carried a carnation bouquet with velvet streamers.

Jerry Poore was best man. Groomsmen were Bill Mibu, Vernon Lux, Steve Kromraj and Michael Fry, a brother of the bride.

Mark Crider served as ringbearer and the ushers were Russell Crider, an uncle of the bride, John and Terry Brake.

FROHARDT PTA PLANS
NEW MOTHERS' TEA

The Frohardt School PTA gathered to meet faculty members and to hear plans for the coming year. Principal Lee field introduced the teaching staff.

Guests included Mrs. Vera Farrow, president of the Granite City Area Council of PTAs, who addressed the gathering, inviting all to attend a get-acquainted pot luck dinner tonight at Lake School. Mrs. Emily Alford, president of the Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce, also was a guest.

The colors were presented by Boy Scouts Louis Spahr, Jim Downs and Darrel Toussaint under the direction of Assistant Scoutmaster Bill Downs. The troop is sponsored by the PTA unit. Mrs. Fran Holt gave the PTA prayer.

The night's award went to Mrs. Sharon Sedacek's second grade room. Plans were discussed for a tea honoring mothers of new students Wednesday, Oct. 3, from 2 until 3 p.m. in the school cafeteria. All kindergarten mothers and any mothers new to Frohardt School are to attend.

Members of the PTA executive board were hosts at a social hour in the cafeteria concluding the evening.

The A to Z Pinocchio Club met with Mrs. Doris Hendricks in Edwardsville.

Honors for the evening went to Mrs. Evelyn Ferro, first; Mrs. Lisa Bauer, second; Mrs. Sue Crider, third; Mrs. Clara Winter, fourth; Mrs. Lucille Broyles, fifth; and Mrs. Veronica Kula, consolation.

Refreshments were served to them and Mrs. Barbara Stout, Mrs. Mary Mang and a guest, Mrs. Carol Broyles. Mrs. Vi Kassabaum invited the club to her home for the October meeting.

brothers of the groom, and Pete McFarland, the groom's brother-in-law.

Candlelighters were Rusty and Randy Crider, cousins of the bride.

Mrs. White chose for her daughter's wedding a floor length gown of orange and gold brocade, complemented with a corsage of orange Sweetheart roses. Mrs. Pogue selected a lime green gown and wore a corsage of yellow roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Long Lake Fireman's Hall. Mrs. Donna Crider, an aunt of the bride, presided over the guest book.

Both young people were graduates from Granite City High School and are employed at Granite City Steel Co. The bride works in the sales department and her husband is employed in the blast furnace division.

Linda Dickerson is married

The United Methodist Church of Madison was the scene of the wedding on Sept. 1 of Miss Linda Sue Dickerson, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Dickerson, 2003 Edwardsville Road, and James Edward Annable, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Annable, 1638 Second St., Madison.

Bouquets of white mums, pink carnations, baby breath and greenery decorated the altar for the double ring ceremony performed at 3 o'clock in the afternoon by the Rev. John R. Annable of Irvington, Ill., an uncle of the groom.

Mrs. Myra Annable, the groom's aunt, presided at the organ and sang "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring." "Close to You," "A Time for Us" and "Ave Maria."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white organza over taffeta, featuring a sheer yoke edged in Venice lace, a stand-up collar and long puff sleeves. Venice lace marked the Empire waistline, the front of the skirt and encircled the hemline that flowed into a chapel train.

A profile headpiece of Chantilly lace secured a tiered melody length veil. Her bouquet was an arrangement of pink roses, baby breath and greenery interspersed with pink ribbons.

The matron of honor, Mrs.

Charles Nappier, and bridesmaid Mrs. Ricky McMichael, a sister of the bride, wore identical dresses fashioned in blue and white, appliqued with pink roses. They were designed with long full sleeves set into fitted bodices and high collars. The gathered skirts terminated at the hem in a wide ruffle.

Each girl held a colonial bouquet of white mums, pink carnations, baby breath festooned with pink streamers. Bob Hollenbeck served as best man. Fred Shelton was groomsmen and Charles Nappier and Gary Bathon acted the guests.

Guests were received by the newly married couple at a reception given at Polish Hall in Madison.

Both young people are graduates of Madison High School. The bride is employed at General American Life Insurance Co., St. Louis. Her husband works at American Car Foundries, St. Louis.

They will reside at 1638 Second St., Madison.

State to stress need for child immunization

A cooperative effort to enforce state regulations for immunization against childhood diseases was announced yesterday by the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the Illinois Department of Public Health.

In a letter to school officials, Supt. Michael J. Bakalis and Public Health Director Dr. Joyce Lashof outlined new procedures for school districts to follow in meeting state immunization laws.

Illinois law requires children entering school to be immunized against measles, rubella, polio, diphtheria, whooping cough (pertussis) and tetanus. In addition, the state requires appropriate booster shots for children entering fifth and ninth grades.

"It is a senseless waste when a child falls victim to a disease which could have been prevented with proper immunization," Bakalis said, "and it only takes a minute to provide that protection."

"School districts and health officials must take the lead in seeing children are protected from this unnecessary waste," Bakalis said.

To assist schools in complying with the state immunization law, his office will assess statewide immunization needs to help identify problem areas, according to the new procedures.

School districts are being asked to maintain accurate and complete health records, including date and type of immunization administered to each child to help in this process.

Emphasis will be placed on the child entering school for the first time. Records will be checked each year to determine the level of immunization and to decide if remedial action is needed.

Suggested procedures for districts to follow in fulfilling their immunization responsibilities include:

—local superintendent will begin a program for awareness and enforcement of immunization law;

—local district immunization needs will be assessed by school nurse or another professional staff member;

—local district will inform parents about the importance of immunization;

—if necessary, the district should implement a full-scale immunization program within the district.

The tragedy of polio and measles," Dr. Lashof said, "is that they strike small children and often result in crippling, blindness, deafness, mental retardation and other irreparable damage."

"Rubella, when transmitted from children to expectant mothers, can harm unborn children and result in a variety of birth defects."

School districts also are being informed of options for obtaining immunization services. These include:

—private physicians or local health departments;

—agreements between district and private physicians or volunteer agencies;

—special clinics coordinated with school personnel and/or local health departments;

—assistance from the Illinois Department of Public Health.

The inter-agency effort marks the first state-level systematic approach toward seeing that all school children are fully immunized in accordance with state law, the officials commented.

Tri-City Area YMCA is offering a comprehensive fun program for children of first through eighth grades on Saturday mornings.

Children will be grouped according to grade level. The grades first through sixth meet from 9 a.m. until 1 in the afternoon. During that time they will visit the craft shop where SUE art major Nancy Hutchinson will arrange projects for them. They will go to gym for supervised games, the pool for swimming, the club rooms, auditorium, and game rooms where the leader of each group has special activities scheduled, ranging from movement education and drama to ping pong, tournaments and story telling.

Each group will have a skilled leader. Pete Mushall, An Renaud, Becca Ashcraft and Steve Sawyer are among the staff led by Program Director Mike Tharp.

Lunch will be brought from home. The children will need a change of clothes and towel. The fee is $1 for the morning for members and $2 for the morning for non-members.

The 7th and 8th graders will have their own program with gym, swim, and special activities for boys and girls. Cost for Junior high members is $1.50 and non-members $2.50. Their program starts at 12 noon and continues to 3 p.m.

Rotary backs Wilkins for state board

Granite City Rotary Club members voted unanimously in their regular meeting Tuesday noon at the YMCA to recommend to Governor Daniel Walker the appointment of Dr. George T. Wilkins Sr. as a member of the State Board of Education which was created by legislation and signed into law by the Governor.

Dr. Wilkins is a former state superintendent of public instruction and has worked in the field of education as an administrator or teacher since 1923.

Guests at the meeting were the Granite City School district; Walter Greathouse of Shang's Liquor store, Walter Stauffer, owner of the local International House of Pancakes; Kent Dunn of the YMCA staff; Edward F. Reiske, executive director of the Chamber of Commerce, and Paul Ullrich, manager of the Washington theatre.

Robert Jackson reported on his visit to the Granite City Council meeting as a Rotary representative.

Al C. Stover read an invitation to the Salvation Army's 50th anniversary dance on Oct. 5.

Steve Rains announced plans for a monthly citizenship award to be presented by the club. He asked club members to suggest men or women for consideration by the selection committee.

John Polson, program chairman, introduced Donald Adams, Rotary co-chairman of the Rotary Optimist Camelot Auction which will be held at the Sunset Hills Country Club Oct. 20. The program was then devoted to plans for making the auction a success.

Dr. Bernard S. Lottman, radiologist, will speak on the expanded services now at St. Elizabeth Hospital at next week's meeting.

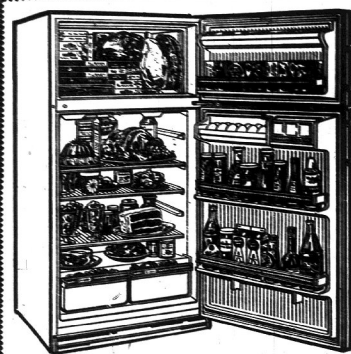

Pledges fraternity

Steve Hagopian of Granite City has pledged to Kappa Alpha, national Greek letter fraternity on the campus of Westminster College, Fulton, Mo. He was among 173 men, representing 77 per cent of Westminster's freshmen, who pledged.

Shower fetes Mrs. Hayes

A cradle shower honoring Mrs. Ginger Hayes was given during the weekend by Mrs. Judi Sparks, Mrs. Helen Siegel, Mrs. Betty Romann and Miss Karin Horn at the latter's home, 2321 St. Bernard Ave. Decorations were carried out in a yellow and green color scheme, with each table centered with a fresh bouquet of yellow pompons.

Games were played and several prizes were awarded. A special prize was won by Mrs. Rosalie Hotop.

After the honoree opened her gifts, a luncheon was served to Mrs. Niepert, Dorothy Hayes, Catharine Parker, Doris Mathews, Suzanne Ervay, Verna Spurrer, Irene Love, Gladys McAmish, Minnie Moeller, Dee Greer, Lorene Whittington, Darlene Lakin, Vivian Vaughn, Betsy Lawey, Myra Harley, Helene Bischoff, Brenda Cant, Sammie Lowell, Mary Moser, Ida Ferguson, Diane Niepert, Marlene Pelek, Doris Ross and Sherry Black.

Out-of-town guests included Rosalie Hotop, Virna Moldenhauer, Margie Lauman, Marie Lowell, Shirley Dietrich, Alberta Blanc, Janet Blanc, Bea Hager, Judy Rousseau and Connie Woodward.

MRS. EDWARDS HOSTESS TO AFTERNOON CARD CLUB Mrs. Vi Edwards served a dessert luncheon at noon to members of the Monday Afternoon Card Club who met this week in her home, 3705 Franklin Ave.

Those winning prizes were Mrs. Grace Henrich, a guest, Mrs. Marie Perry and Mrs. Leona Parente. Others attending were Mrs. Theresa Walkenbach, a guest, Mrs. Margaret Richardson, Mrs. Verna Moehle and Mrs. Myrtle Bruns. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Cecil Kennedy, 2322 Delmar Ave.

DANNY RAPOFF'S NAME SON SCOTT ANTHONY Mr. and Mrs. Danny Rapoff, 2007 Wilson Ave., became the parents of their second child, a son, born Sept. 22 at Alton Memorial Hospital.

The infant weighed seven pounds, 11 ounces and has been named Scott Anthony. He has a sister, Karl Lynn, 3 years old. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Louis Smith of Cooksville, Ill., formerly of Granite City, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rapoff, 2535 Edison Ave. The mother will be remembered as the former Miss Laura Smith.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN J. JANEK JR. who were married in an evening ceremony at Sacred Heart Catholic Church. The bride is the former Miss Janice Hollstein, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Hollstein of Waukegan, Ill.

Janice Hollstein and John J. Janek are wed

Miss Janice Hollstein, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Hollstein, 104 Keith Ave., Waukegan, Ill., and John J. Janek Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Janek Sr., 3511 E. 25th St., exchanged wedding vows Sept. 14 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

The Rev. Daniel Flynn officiated at the double ring ceremony at 4 o'clock in the evening. Mrs. Alice Worthen, soloist, sang several nuptial songs prior to the ceremony. For her wedding, the bride chose an egg shell satin gown designed with a delicate lace bodice, a high neckline and long bell shaped sleeves. Her A-line style skirt was fashioned of satin and accented at the waistline with a narrow satin ribbon ending in a bow at the back.

She wore a lace crown to secure her full length veil and she held a bouquet of white summer flowers. Mrs. Marilyn Merlock, a sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a pink formal length gown, trimmed in Hawaiian floral print. Her bouquet of pink flowers had touches of baby breath and ivy. The bridesmaids, Miss Dee Hollstein, Miss Carol Hollstein, both sisters of the bride, Susan Mueller and Barbara Summers, were dressed alike in full length gowns of pink Hawaiian floral print. Their flowers were similar to those carried by the honor attendant. Kelle Merlock, a niece of the bride, served as the flower girl. Her pink frock was styled to match the adult attendants' dresses. Steven Merlock, a nephew of the bride, was the ringbearer. Attending the groom as best man was John Krokovich. Pete Novosel, Tom Janek, a brother of the groom, Forrest Mueller, John Summers, John Hadley and Harold Hollstein Jr., the bride's brother, completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

A reception was held at the Croatian Home in Madison following the service. The rehearsal dinner was served at Tony's Restaurant. The newly married couple is residing in Granite City after a wedding trip to Hawaii.

Employed as a beautician, the bride also is attending Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville where she is a nursing student. The groom, also a student at SIUE, is employed as a real estate salesman.

ENGAGED. Miss Catherine Ann Robertson whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Robertson, 3141 Felling Road, are announcing her engagement to Richard Eddy.

Miss Robertson is betrothed

Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Robertson, 3141 Felling Road, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Catherine Ann Robertson, to Richard Eddy, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eddy of Erie, Ill. The bride-elect is a graduate of Eastern Illinois University, Charleston, where she received a B.S. degree in business administration, majoring in office administration and management. She is a member of the Kappa Delta Sorority. Her fiancé also is a graduate of Eastern Illinois University with a B.S. degree in business administration, majoring in marketing. He is a member of Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity. Both young people are employed in the Moline, Ill. area. They are planning a winter wedding.

Teens— keen on fashion

If you have a teen-ager in the family, then you are aware of the importance clothes play in his or her life. Because they're teen-agers, they have special problems. Adolescence is a time of great physical embarrassment. Therefore, very strong interests in clothes and grooming develop.

The teens are also a time of independence. The breaking away from the family makes the peer very important. Conformity helps to alleviate the pressures of self-consciousness and sensitivity.

Each generation has its own status symbols among the teen-ager. As outlandish as they may seem to the parents, they are very important to the adolescents.

Mothers and other teen-agers have the greatest influence on what teen-agers wear. Both boys and girls want the up-to-the-minute look. Therefore, fashion is the primary concern of teen-age buyers. Durability and quality are of less importance to them.

Teen-age girls comprise about 12 per cent of the population of the United States. They account for 18 per cent of all money spent on women's clothing and accessories.

Girls check the style of a garment first. Second, they'll check the size and last, the price. Only one in five girls will check the color of a garment first.

The peak purchasing periods of teen-agers are August, September, and February. Because of this fact, prices can be expected to be highest during these months. It's advisable to shop early in winter for clothing. I often advise teen-agers to get a style rather than waiting to see what is the fact that season and following it.

A survey was taken of teen-age girls' wardrobes in 1968. The results showed the average teen-age girl to own:

3.9 daytime dresses
16.2 blouses
3.3 suits
12.6 skirts
14.9 sweaters
14.2 slacks
6.5 slips
2.8 girdles
3.4 night gowns
10.9 pair nylon
6.6 purses
3.0 hats
9.9 pair shoes

Ladies In Action review festival

Results of the Charity Days festival at Hamlet Village Shopping Center were reported Monday evening by the Ladies In Action group at a meeting in the Briarcliff Pentecostal Church on West Ponton Road. Appreciation was expressed by the members to those who patronized the booth and others who assisted by donating space. Mrs. Margaret Glasgow opened the business session and offered prayer. Tasty plans were made for a Christmas banquet.

After the program, members adjourned to the International House of Pancakes for refreshments. Among those present were Mrs. Ann Hosen, Mrs. Wanda Watson, Mrs. Opal Orrell, Mrs. Christine Steinhilber and a guest, Mrs. Jan Wilson.

Flameproof children's costumes

By CATHERINE R. MAUCK
Madison County

Home Economics Adviser
The bewitching night of goblins and jack-o-lanterns is just around the corner. And soon children will begin choosing costumes for that special night.
As Halloween excitement grows, so do the dangers of accidental fires and burns. This Halloween, protect your children from these hazards by flameproofing their costumes. Flame-resistant treatments cannot prevent fires, but they will reduce the danger of fires. Many ready-to-wear costumes presently on the market are flame resistant, and if you are planning to make a new costume or use an old one, flame resistant treatments can be made at home.
One of the most effective flame-resistant treatments is a borax and boric acid solution. This solution does not weaken fabrics, even after storing several months. But materials treated with borax and boric acid may lose their flame resistance in time, and repeat treatments are necessary within year.

To make a borax-boric acid solution you'll need the following: borax, 7 ounces; boric acid, 3 ounces; and hot water, 2 quarts.
Add the borax and boric acid to water and stir until the solution is clear. Warm the solution if it becomes cloudy or jelly like from standing.
For resin-treated cotton or rayon fabrics, a diammonium phosphate solution should be used. You'll need the following to make a diammonium phosphate solution: diammonium phosphate, 12 ounces; and water, 2 quarts.
Add the diammonium phosphate to water and stir until the solution is clear.

This solution weakens fabric more readily than the boric acid treatment if the fabric is stored for long periods.
Resin-treated fabrics, and some unused fabrics, resist wetting. To overcome this, add about one tablespoon of a wetting agent (any synthetic detergent) to each gallon of solution.
These solutions can be used on most personal and household fabrics. However, they are not effective on synthetic fibers such as nylon, orlon, and acetate.

You can apply these solutions to fabrics in three ways: dipping them into the solution, spraying the solution onto the article, or thoroughly dampening fabrics by sprinkling solutions on clothing and other items that require ironing. Be sure to allow fabrics to dry before ironing and do not redampen with water.
These flame-retardant solutions will wash out when materials are exposed to weather or frequent laundering. Remember, garments treated for flame resistance will not injure or irritate skin. Homemade solutions will cause no change in the feel or color of the material, but will usually cause a slight stiffening of the treated fabric.

Medical class to switch to Springfield

The Southern Illinois University School of Medicine will inaugurate the Springfield phase of its instructional operations Oct. 1, when an advanced standing class of 25 students is officially welcomed at a ceremony at St. John's Hospital.
The ceremony will begin a week-long series of activities designed to acquaint the students with the medical school's curriculum, faculty and facilities and with St. John's and Memorial Hospitals.

The class is comprised mostly of graduates of two-year medical schools in North and South Dakota and Nevada. In addition, four of the students have advanced degrees or training in the biological sciences, and one student is transferring from Northwestern University Medical School.
The advanced standing class is one of the recommendations made by the Liaison Committee on Medical Education when it granted provisional accreditation to the medical school last November.

The committee felt that the school's programs of clinical instruction and those of the affiliated hospitals in Springfield had developed sufficiently to begin academic operations this year instead of waiting until next June, when the school's charter class of 48 students transfers to Springfield from Carbondale.
The charter class, which will be the first to complete the medical school's three-year program, is presently enrolled in the basic science phase of the curriculum.

The three-year program calls for students to take their first or basic sciences year at SIUC and transfer to Springfield for their second and third years for clinical studies.

The advanced standing class, when it completes two years of study in Springfield, will become the medical school's first graduating class in June 1975.

The graduation will enable the school to host by three years the goal set by the Illinois Board of Higher Education in 1968. At that time, the IBHE directed SIUC to establish a medical school capable of graduating its first class by no later than 1978.

Endorsed in board race

Louis Whitsett, Nameoki Township supervisor and a member of the Madison County Board, has received the endorsement of the Truth and Action Committee of Nameoki Township as Democratic candidate for re-election to the District 26 County Board seat, it was announced this week.
Edgar A. Patrick, Nameoki Township tax collector, previously announced he would run against Whitsett in the primary election which is to be held early next year. A date for the primary has not been set.

On dean's list

Donna Graklanoff and Clarence Wallace of Granite City and Terry Hicken of Madison are among undergraduates named to the summer term Dean's list at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale. The Dean's list is for students receiving a quarterly grade point average of 4.25 or better on a 5.0 scale while taking a full-course load.

The Tri-City Area YMCA in Granite City will hold an Open House for women interested in physical fitness classes and other fall programs. Open House dates are Tuesday, Oct. 2 and Thursday, Oct. 4, from 7 to 9 p.m. and Saturday, Oct. 6 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The Ladies Spa, including a new Finnish sauna, steambath, exercycles, vibrators, roller massage, body treatments, pedicures, swimming pool and a new exercise room will be open for four and participation at no cost.

Ladies are to bring their exercise gear. They will be given a tour to get acquainted with the Spa and meet the new director of women's programs, Judith Edmister. Mrs. Edmister will also be presenting programs, "Fitness Finders" and "A Lovelier You" Refreshments will be served.

For more information, contact the YMCA. A check for the charter membership to all women who register during Oct. 1 to Oct. 14 in the ladies program. A reduced cost for "Y" membership and the ladies annual activity fee is a part of the charter membership. Regular cost would be $60 for the year.

The membership and activity fee entitles a member to the use of the Spa from 9 to 10 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 9 to 8 p.m. on Friday, and 9 to 7 p.m. on Saturday, and recreational activities include swims, volleyball sessions, various luncheons (at cost) and activities to be scheduled to meet the women's needs.

The Spa will be supervised every evening from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. by Mrs. Edminster and Genna Norman, long-time instructors of the ladies' evening fitness classes.

One of the speakers who will appear before the women in the "Loverlye You" program is Al Meis. Meis a former gourmet chef, will prepare and serve a luncheon for the ladies on Oct. 11 at 9:45 a.m. Many other programs from wig styling to yoga will be scheduled. Details may be obtained at 876-7200.

TRAVELING BY AIR? CALL HOLIDAY SERVICE, 452-3131

A group of about 250 Quad City Shrine men and wives departed last night and early today for Cincinnati, Ohio site of the 1972 convention of the Great Lakes Shrine Association.

Religious activities of the festival start today and conclude Saturday evening with a banquet and dance.

More than 600 Shrine men representing Ainal Shrine Temple in East St. Louis are expected to attend the three-day event.

Local Shrine units will be part of a parade scheduled Saturday morning through downtown Cincinnati, in which contingents from 22 Shrine Temples will participate.

Henry Schermer of the Tri-City Shrine Club and an officer of the Association's Oriental Band division, said the procession planned at 9 a.m. Saturday will be so extensive that a 4½-hour period will be required to permit the parade to give point on the parade route to each unit.

GCHS-South will join with GCHS-North at an Invitational Dance Saturday. The Student Council at South has formally invited North students to attend. The band, "Orange" will play from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. Tickets can be purchased from members for 75c in advance and $1 at the door.

5 hurt in crash near Columbia

Five persons, including Donald James, 25, of 2146 Adams St., a driver, were injured in a three-car crash at Routes 3 and 158 near Columbia at 4:50 p.m. Monday.

The five were taken to Belleville Memorial Hospital where James and Nada Brown, 33, of St. Louis, were treated and released. Admitted to the Hospital were three members of the Virginia Fletcher family of Arvada, Colo., whose auto burned after the accident.

Mrs. Fletcher, 60, was admitted in satisfactory condition. Claressa Fletcher, 32, was in fair condition and Leamon Fletcher, 73, was reported in stable condition.

Nada Nickels was a passenger in the car driven by Carl Nickels of the same address. He was not injured.

Roca installs, honors members

The Roca Young Men's Club began its 54th year with a "Parents' Night" program, installation of officers and a recognition ceremony at the Namohi Recreation Center, Amos and Franklin avenues.

Special guests were club sweethearts—Paula Schuler, Mary Kay Beecher, Kathy Laik and Diane Beecher—and parents of the Roca members.

Installed as new officers were Rich Woods, president; Paul Seebold, vice-president; Craig Bailey, secretary; Dennis Harris, treasurer; Paul Moushagian, sergeant-at-arms; and Tim Dillard, pledge master.

In a special ceremony, Scott McRaven was presented the "most outstanding member" award and the club's "Founders Plaque" was awarded to Paul Seebold as the "most representative" member.

The presentation was by Mike Jesse and Pete Krieshok, Roca advisers. Also honored was Tom Paterson, the retiring president, who received a plaque from Miss Schuler.

Appreciation also was expressed to the other retiring officers—Tom Vrenick, vice-president; Al Miller, secretary; Bill Barbieri, treasurer; Chris Louis, sergeant-at-arms; and Frank Stroehmer, pledge master.

Five graduating club members recognized and honored were Brett Champoon, Vrenick, Paterson, Jim Cardwell and Barbieri.

Plans were completed to take part in the ALSAC fund raising march to aid leukemia stricken children. Also tentatively planned were a rock day, set Oct. 8, and a Roca sochop in November.

PIERCE REUNION
The children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren of the late John Alexander Pierce and Matilda Elizabeth Pierce gathered Sunday at the home of Opal Pierce Latinski and Alex Latinski, 2339 Pontoon Road, for a pot luck dinner.

Attending were their son, Frank Megel, and his wife, Peggy, and their sons, Alexander and Jason; Mrs. Doris (McGhee) Regel and her husband Louis and daughter, Sherry; Mr. and Mrs. Joel Pierce and daughter, Jo Laverne; and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pierce, all of Granite City.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Pierce of San Francisco, Calif.; Paul Pierce of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mrs. Virginia Pierce and son, John David; Joan Pierce Duke and son, Terry Pierce; Eileen Pierce Wojtowicz and her husband, Robert, and son, Kenny; and Kevin Duke, Mark Duke, Richard Duke and Timothy Duke, all of Granite City.

Games were played. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brooks have returned from a vacation spent in Missouri, at Indian Hills near Cuba and in West Plains with Mr. and Mrs. Henke.

Henke and Mary Ester Boonhearts, missionaries to Belgium, are back in the U. S. to attend a year of school at St. Louis Christian College, after which they will return to Belgium. They will be visiting the Pontoon Church of Christ in the near future.

JOINT CELEBRATION. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Coy, 3017 Marshall Ave., at left, who observed their 30th anniversary in conjunction with the golden wedding celebration of the former's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Coy, of Murray, Ky., at right.

Harold Coys mark 30th anniversary

Two brothers and their wives jointly observed wedding anniversaries at an open house party in Murray, Ky.

The honored couples were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Coy, 3017 Marshall Ave., who marked their 30th anniversary, and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Coy of Murray, who celebrated their golden wedding day. Both were married on Sept. 15.

Many relatives and friends of the two couples attended the open house reception at the C. C. Coy residence in Murray. Among the guests were the Harold Coys' son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Coy and daughter, Sharon, their son, Jeffrey Coy, and their grandchildren, Gary, Beth and Kathy. All are residents of Granite City.

Mr. Harold Coy is the former Robert Wilson of Granite City. Her sister-in-law is the former Miss Ester Wolford of Stewart County, Tenn.

John Pilch joins Navy in ceremony at stadium

John R. Pilch of Granite City was among 80 young men inducted into the U. S. Navy during swearing-in ceremonies last evening at Busch Memorial Stadium, St. Louis. The special ceremony was conducted prior to the Cardinals-Chicago Cubs game.

Seaman Recruit Pilch is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Pilch, 1835 Cleveland Blvd. He enlisted in the Navy as a member of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Earlier this week Mr. and Mrs. Pilch entertained at a going away party at their home, honoring their son. A buffet dinner was served to 35 guests. Many gifts were presented to the serviceman.

Out-of-town guests attending were Mrs. Mary Evers of St. Louis, Mrs. Genevieve Sharp of Maplewood, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. Billy Watson and sons of Billings, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. Myron B. Hadden and Mary Ann of Sunset Hills, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence O'Halloran and Gene of Glencoe, Mo., and Mr. and Mrs. Boone Vaughn and family of Union, Mo.

Among the local guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Afflick and son, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holt and son, Larry Pilger, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clark, Rosalie Pilch, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dobrowski and Janet, Vicki Pilger and Mr. and Mrs. George Pilch.

Harmony Class officers installed

The Rev. Ray Bush served as installing officer for incoming officers of the Harmony Sunday School Class in a ceremony held during the weekend at Northwestern United Methodist Church.

Those who will head the class in the new season, include: Harold Lynn, president; Marvin Benson, president; Angie Rattos, recording secretary; Eula Myers, corresponding secretary; Calvin Compton, treasurer; Fred Nitch, teacher; and Dale Carper, Sunday morning secretary.

Edgar Fiedrich, the retiring president, was in charge of the business meeting. Mrs. Edna Stiller gave the devotion. Bowers at home at a potluck dinner that preceded the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Carver.

Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lynn, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Fiedrich, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Compton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Benson.

Conalco expands

Consolidated Aluminum Corp. (Conalco), a St. Louis based firm which operates a plant in Venice, has purchased the Olin Corp. aluminum operations in St. Louis for $126 million. Purchased were an aluminum sheet and plate mill, two electrical conductor plants, six fabricating plants and half of Ormet Corp. The plants employ about 3,300 workers.

Young Democrats reorganize

The first reorganization meeting of the previously inactive Young Democrats of Madison County will be held Monday evening at Charlie's Restaurant.

The meeting will be to kick-off a membership drive in the county. Representatives from all townships in the county have been invited as have state and local public officials.

A cocktail hour from 7 to 8 p.m. will precede the business session. The event is free of charge and Democrats between the ages of 16 and 35 are invited. Interim officers for the reorganization were appointed during the Young Democrats National Convention last month in Louisville, Ky.

Mike Garcia of Granite City, interim president, and Gary Novich of Madison, first vice-president, attended the event. Other officers named were Glenn Sprankle of Granite City, second vice-president, Fred Painter of Granite City, treasurer, and Jim Parker, also of Granite City, secretary.

Search continuing for missing man

A statewide investigation is continuing to try to locate Leo B. Coleman, 80, of 2403 Iowa St., who disappeared from home Aug. 18.

A missing person report was filed with police Aug. 18 and a teletype message was sent out the same day to all law enforcement agencies.

His daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Lampher of Sedalia, Mo., reports he had been known to carry large sums of money with him; she is afraid he may have been the victim of a crime.

Police found Mr. Coleman had a 1964 dark over blue auto and may have purchased a brown 1968 car before he disappeared.

Anyone knowing where Mr. Coleman is or having information which may help the investigation is being asked to contact Granite City police at 877-6111.

Mrs. Crowcroft, 69, dies

Mrs. Gladys Lucille (Garnier) Crowcroft, 69, of 2616 Edison Ave., ill for two months, died at 11:35 p.m. Tuesday at St. Elizabeth Hospital where she was admitted one week ago.

Born in Murrayville, Ill., she resided in Granite City since 1934.

bors. Survivors include her husband, Floyd E. Crowcroft; one daughter, Mrs. Tom (Sharon) Stewart of Herrin, Ill.; a sister, Mrs. Edgar (Lena) Brown of Jacksonville, Ill.; one brother, Charles H. Garner of Taylorville, Ill., and two grandchildren. Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

3 injured in crash

at Nameoki, Johnson

Three persons were hurt when the autos of Mrs. Ruth Youngberg, 47, of 4207 Bruene Drive, Pontoon Beach, and Steven Winter, 16, of 2113 Clark Ave., collided at Nameoki and Johnson roads at 6:40 p.m. Tuesday.

The drivers and David Jeffries, 17, of 3244 Wabash Ave., were injured. Mrs. Youngberg was admitted to the hospital with a half-inch cut to her right cheek and a cut to her lower lip. X-rays were taken.

Winter was thrown to the ground in the accident and suffered abrasions to his left shoulder and elbow and right hip. X-rays were taken at the hospital and he was released.

Jeffries was treated for abrasions to his left shoulder. X-rays were taken and he was released.

Mrs. Fowler, 94, succumbs

Mrs. Stella Fowler, 94, of 6100 Archwood Ave., St. Louis, a former resident of Granite City, died at 10:40 a.m. Wednesday at the Incarnate Word Hospital, St. Louis. She had been in the hospital for four months.

Born in Alabama, Mrs. Fowler resided in this area for 50 years, moving to St. Louis three years ago.

While living here she was a member of Sacred Heart Roman Catholic Church.

Her husband, James Fowler, died Nov. 24, 1944. Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

Mother of GC resident dies

Mrs. Elizabeth Phippen, 98, a resident of the Fairwinds Nursing Home, Greenville, Ill., mother of local residents, died there at 9 p.m. Wednesday.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Josephine Sommerlat and Mrs. Lucille Anderson, both of Granite City; four sisters, two grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. Funeral services will be held at noon Saturday at a Green-

ICE HOCKEY MEETING Parents of players who plan to participate in the 1973 Granite City Amateur Ice Hockey program are to attend a meeting at 7 this evening at the Nameoki Recreation Center, 2165 Amos Ave. Vacancies on several team rosters remain to be filled.

Schermer's is celebrating 70 SUCCESSFUL YEARS!!

A PERSONAL MESSAGE FROM LEO AND AVERY

As we start our 70th Anniversary Sale, our thoughts go back to 1903 when our father, Herman, after being wiped out in the flood of that year, relocated at 12th and Madison. We're still here.

A lot of water has gone down the Mississippi. We've been through 4 wars, 3 fires, the "great depression" and as it must to all men, many, many deaths. We watched as the original seven Schermmer Brothers passed away one by one. We lost our own brother, Stan, and our sister, Sara. We've mourned with our customers who lost their loved ones over the years.

Yet, we still rejoice. In spite of all of our misfortunes, our business has grown, and we have been able to work in our fine community in the finest Schermmer tradition, helping others. We're especially proud of the work we have done over the years with United Fund, Boy Scouts, Rotary, Lions, City Government, and of course, the Shriners Crippled Children's Hospital. We will continue with these activities to the best of our ability.

We want to thank all of our friends, who have not only been a source of inspiration in times of trouble, but who have supported us in all of our endeavors; business, civic, and charitable. Thank you all from the bottom of our hearts.

Leo and Avery

14 speakers scheduled at SIUE marketing conference

Howard R. Kaufman, chief of the Consumer Fraud and Protection Division of the Illinois attorney general's office, will speak at a national public policy conference on marketing, scheduled Oct. 4-5 at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Kaufman's division is the largest consumer fraud and protection agency in the United States, having a roster of 75 attorneys and support personnel who devote full time to the protection of the Illinois consumer.

Kaufman is one of 14 speakers from academic, government, business and consumer groups who are scheduled on the conference program. Others include William Laver, department of marketing, Michigan State University, and president of the American Marketing Association; Leo Richardson, director of consumer education and finance of the U.S. Office of Consumer Affairs; and Edward Cundiff, department of marketing, University of Texas, and editor of the Journal of Marketing.

The conference theme will be: "Public Policy Debate: New Horizons for Marketing." All sessions will be held in the Mississippi Room of the University Center. The opening session will be a panel discussion on truth in advertising.

HOWARD KAUFMAN

vertising at 8 p.m., Oct. 4. Three sessions are scheduled Oct. 5, beginning at 8:30 a.m. Topics to be covered include marketing and self-regulation, future government intervention in marketing activities, new legislation and Federal Trade Commission decisions relating to deceptive advertising, the relationship of marketing systems to consumer welfare, and an assessment of the impact of consumerism on public policy.

Paul E. Sultan, dean of the SIUE School of Business, and other members of the SIUE faculty will participate, as well as representatives of 16 other major colleges and universities. O. C. Ferrell and Raymond LaGarce, assistant professors of marketing at SIUE, are co-chairmen of the conference.

'Stamps by mail' service offered

Quad-City postal officials announced today that a new "stamps by mail" service will be offered in this area to permit customers to purchase stamps and stamped envelopes through the mail, using a personal check or money order.

The new service was announced jointly by Herbert Backs, officer in charge of the Granite City post office, Postmaster Charles Simmons of Venice and Postmaster William Clinton of Madison.

Y schedules judo program

The Tri-City Area YMCA will open its fall judo program Monday, Oct. 1 at 5:30 p.m.

The schedule for the fall season is as follows: Youth (1st through 8th grades) will meet on Mondays and Wednesdays from 5:30 p.m. to 7 p.m.

Adults and high school students will meet from 7:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. on Monday and Wednesday. Instructor for both classes is Len Fuchs III of Granite City.

Fuchs has competed and studied with his family in the martial arts at the YMCA for many years. He competed in wrestling three years with Granite City High School, one year with Florissant Valley Community College and 10 years in AAU competition, presently holding his San-Ku Kodokan brown belt.

He has been a member of several judo teams and last spring participated in the National AAU meet in Atlanta, Ga., making it through to the sixth round after winning preliminaries at Forest Park. He placed third in the junior college national judo championship. He is a student at Florissant Valley Community College.

The classes will last 12 weeks ending Dec. 19. Outside competition for members of the class will be available after several weeks. The class fee for youths is $18, adults, $24. Further information is available at 876-7200.

BURGLARIZE HOME

Burglars stole items valued at $760 from the home of Roy Moorin, 7 Paul Ave., after entering through a kitchen window. Televisions were stolen from the bedroom and the basement and some change was taken, it was reported Monday.

"This service will be of great benefit to all our customers and especially about the elderly and working wives," they said. "It will enable them to satisfy their postal needs simply, rapidly and inexpensively from their homes."

Leaflets giving details of the service are to be distributed to area households and small businesses during the next few weeks.

"This new service has been tested in selected cities nationwide with very positive results a statement said. "One of our customers in a test city wrote 'I am very happy about this service, as many of us older people can't get around the way we would like. We really appreciate this new service. Obviously we are pleased to provide a service which means so much to people like this senior citizen.'"

A 40c fee will be charged to defray the cost of two-way postage, processing of checks and other costs associated with the service.

Tavern owners to lower drinking age on Oct. 1

Quad-City and Madison County tavern owners, preparing to apply a new law which will permit serving wine and beer to 19 and 20-year-olds, appealed this week to the new class of drinkers not to abuse the privilege offered by the new legislation. The new law becomes effective Oct. 1.

In a statement issued early this week, the Madison County Tavern Owners Association said: "On Oct. 1, a law that has been enacted by the state legislative body, and signed by Governor Walker, will become effective, giving you (those 19 and 20 year olds) the right to drink beer and wine."

"The liquor licensees in Madison County welcome you to their establishments. We sincerely hope that this new privilege granted you will not be abused and that you will accept this privilege by conducting yourself as ladies and gentlemen and join those older than you that have had the right to drink these past years, by displaying your ability to be accepted as mature men and women."

"We hope that you won't be embarrassed if you are asked to show proof of age, or told that you are only allowed to drink beer and wine, but in order for us to comply with the law, we have to ask these questions and make these statements."

"If this new law is accepted by you in the coming months you prove your ability to consume these alcoholic beverages in moderation, future legislation could give you the right to consume all alcoholic beverages—or your present right could be rescinded."

Passenger transit seminar for region

Several nationally known leaders in the transportation field will speak on passenger transit problems in this metropolitan area at the Greater St. Louis Transportation Seminar Oct. 11 and 12 at Stouffer's Riverfront Inn. The seminar is being sponsored by Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and the University of Missouri at Columbia, with partial funding by the University Research Program of the U. S. Department of Transportation.

George R. Arnold, associate professor of engineering at SIUE and seminar director, said the speakers will include: John Hirt, Washington, D. C., deputy administrator of the Urban Mass Transit Administration;

Adm. Russell Waesche, Kansas City, regional representative of the Department of Transportation;

Joel Stone, Atlanta, chairman of the Atlanta Regional Planning Commission;

Douglas Bauer, Washington, D. C., White House Fellow with the Department of Transportation;

Leo J. Cusick, Kansas City, acting resident manager of the Kansas City Area Transportation Authority and former chief administrator of the Boston Transit Authority;

Langhorne Bond, Springfield, director of planning, programming and environmental sciences, Illinois Department of Transportation; and Eugene Moody, executive director of the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council.

Other authorities on the program will include representatives of transportation, development and planning agencies in Illinois and Missouri; the mayors of St. Louis, East St. Louis and other area cities; representatives of the Illinois Pollution Control Board; faculty members from SIUE, the University of Missouri and Washington University; and representatives of federal regional agencies.

Arnold said the seminar is for all segments of the population—state and local governments, industries, commercial interests, educators and students, minority groups, planners and environmentalists, and the general public.

The program sessions will feature discussions of urban passenger systems, urban land use as related to transportation, policies and planning, and the environmental impact of transportation.

"Present and future transit problems of the greater St. Louis area will be the central theme of the seminar," Arnold said. "We will encourage full expression, and adversary points of view are anticipated."

Passenger transit systems will be emphasized, but other modes of transportation will be discussed, and comments in particular are expected on the

Veterans' Service Center office opens

The Veterans' Service Center, a group offering counseling for veterans and local residents in need of help, this week opened a Granite City office in the former Granite City Township Assessor's Office, 307 State St.

Three full-time counselors are working in the new office referring problems to the proper state or federal agencies or seeking other solutions to problems. Although preference is given to the problems of veterans, any local resident may seek the VSC services. Questions concerning veterans' benefits and retirement benefits are among those commonly handled by the counselors.

The VSC plans to open another office soon in Madison.

Music world—Cheech and Mitchell Chong reaching top rung

According to Sir Max Beer-tolm, of all the countless folks who have lived on this planet, not one is known in history or in legend as having died of laughter. Well, that may be true, but a young Chinese and his Chicano buddy seem destined to change that part of history.

The meteoric career of the comedy team of Cheech and Chong proves beyond doubt that the music-oriented counter culture can laugh at its own faults as well as those of the establishment when the occasion arises.

That occasion definitely arose just two short years ago when the unknown, untested and unheralded performers came to the attention of Lou Adler, Ode Records president. Typical of their career at the time, Adler saw them working gratis at a "Hot" night at the Hollywood's Troubadour Club.

Today, with two gold LPs, "Cheech & Chong" and "Big Bambu" already to their credit, they are doing what every recording artist dreams of and that is "shipping gold." This means that their third Ode album, "Los Cochinos," chalked up more than $1 million in pre-release sales in advance.

Cheech and Chong have attained the top rung of superstar status, but they also are respected the medium of the comedy album and brought it to a popularity and a power never before attained—even in its heyday in the early-to-mid-sixties before the medium fell on hard times.

Additionally, in this age of music mystique and power, the pair's comedy LPs outsell all but a handful of the rock superstars and mere statistics can't properly emphasize their special effect and niche on the current scene.

Culturally, what is especially pertinent in their success is that it has been attained on their own terms, and with their own material. They haven't altered their jaundiced viewpoint one bit. Irreverence and the common vernacular, common to a good bunk of the population, is their thing.

Their superstar status, LP sales and concert grosses are subjects they feel somewhat uncomfortable discussing, but they must find their career turnabout sweet and satisfying.

For it seems it was just yesterday that they were working for little more than their supper and not exactly four-star meals at that.

Tommy Chong, son of an itinerant topless nightclub owner, was born in Edmonton, Canada. The Chinese member of the group, he began his show business career as a guitar player in R&B bands in western Canada. His group, Bobby Taylor and the Vancouverians, was signed to Motown and had a hit written by Chong, "Does Your Mama Know About Me?" When the group broke up, Tommy settled in Vancouver to direct stage shows for the family-owned nightclub.

Richard Martin, better known as "Cheech" (short for Cheechmarone, a term which literally means a delivery made of deep-fried pork skins) is the Chicano member of the team. He was born in the so-called "better" section of Watts, Calif., ironically a son of the establishment—a Los Angeles policeman.

After graduating from college he took off to see Canada and it was there that he met Chong and joined a group known as City Lights. The group consisted of three "freaks," four topless dancers and mime artist, and did some hot business for a while. But then City Lights went dark and parted company. Cheech and Chong decided to stay together as a duo performing with bands in western Canada when they could find work. Finally they ventured to Los Angeles, where on Monday night they signed up to perform at the "Hot," and the rest is fodder for endless overnight stadium stories.

If the projections prove correct as they have in the past, look for "Los Cochinos" to be the No. 1 comedy album of the year. Some of the top cuts include "Sargent Stadanko," "Pedro And Man at the Drive In" and "White World of Sports." These longer tracks are spaced out with a few spot commercials like "Peter Rook" and "Evelyn Wood" head Speedy Course.

Great River Riders plan 100 mile ride on Sunday

Six members of the Great River Riders Bike Club of the Tri-City Area YMCA will participate in the sixth annual "Dam Century Run" Sunday in Marion, Ind., sponsored by the Marion "Y" Wheelman.

Kent Dunn of the YMCA staff, who was one of the original founders of both clubs, said the ride got its name because the route for the first ride in 1967 took the cyclists across the dam sites for two reservoirs north and west of the city.

The 1973 route crosses those same dams, but also goes through Wabash, Ind., the first city with electric street lights, Penn, Ind., Circus City USA, the old National Circus Grounds and within a stone's throw of the Cole Porter home.

The "Century," or 100 miles, is to be accomplished in 10 hours or less. Awards will be given for various aspects of cycling.

Preceding the Sunday morning start will be a Saturday night social at a local smorgasbord. Local riders will attend the social after cycling from Kokomo, Ind., where they will stay Friday night at the home of Kent Dunn's parents.

The ride from Kokomo to Marion is about 35 miles. They will be guests in the home of Marion YMCA Director Bob Swearingen on Saturday. Riders will include Jean Francis and son Keith, Jack Reed, Bob Short, Connie Koestel and Kent Dunn.

Other rides are planned by the club and details are available by calling Bob Short, 877-8197; Jack Dawson, 931-3467, or Nancy Marti, 931-1347.

Ample fire coverage essential

If you are a homeowner, can you say for certain that the fire insurance coverage on your house is sufficient to cover its replacement value in today's rising real estate market?

Increased building costs together with other factors, including any improvements you may have made to your home, are almost certain to have increased its value considerably during the past few years.

Meanwhile, if the limits of your fire insurance coverage have remained unchanged, you probably would be inadequately compensated for the loss if your home were to be destroyed, or even partially damaged, by fire.

According to the Illinois State Bar Association, to be adequately protected against fire or other catastrophe, a home should be insured at 80 per cent of replacement value, assuming 50 per cent of the value is in underground improvements which would escape destruction.

In many cases, insurance at 100 per cent of value is desirable, meaning the face value of the policy, plus any increases by enforcement, should be the same as the current market value of your home.

Here are other insurance guidelines offered by the ISBA:

The insurance policy should include protection against a variety of perils, including lightning, windstorm, hail, explosion and possibly riot damage and other perils. A fire-and-extended-coverage policy or package-type Homeowners, or "HO", policy offers this kind of broad coverage.

The "HO" policyholder who maintains his insurance at 80 per cent of value is reimbursed at full repair or replacement cost in event of partial damage to his home. On the other hand, if he is insured at less than that amount, he is compensated for damage only at the rate of replacement cost less depreciation.

The policyholder can hedge against future increases in the replacement value of his home by subscribing to an "inflationary guard endorsement" to his policy. If he does this, the insurance coverage will be increased automatically every three months at a specified rate designed to keep coverage in line with replacement value.

Under a broad form "HO" policy, personal property, including furniture, clothing and other contents of the house are insured up to 50 per cent of the amount of insurance on the dwelling. However, the owner should be sure that this arrangement will provide adequate compensation in case of loss. People who rent their home or apartment also can insure their personal possessions under tenants' policies.

To be sure their insurance coverage is up to date, homeowners should consult their insurance agent or broker, the ISBA said.

Campus help for veterans
A Veterans' Administration representative from the regional office in Chicago will be on the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville campus Thursday, Oct. 4, and Friday, Oct. 5, to help SIUE veterans clear up any problems they may have.

The representative, Bernard Michaels, will be available in the Office of Admissions and Records, located in the General Office Building, Room 1204, from 1 p.m. to 7 p.m. on Oct. 4, and from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Oct. 5.

Michaels will be authorized to accept VA applications from initially enrolling veterans, certification of attendance for a prior enrollment period from re-enrolling veterans, and oral certification of enrollment school officials.

A special unit in the VA regional office in Chicago will process the inquiries made at SIUE to assure rapid action and payment.

According to Terry Campbell, coordinator of veterans' affairs at SIUE, veterans will have an opportunity to clear up their payment problems, or any other problems they may have, early in the school year through special procedures with the VA regional office.

Seek clearance of transit funds

Attorney General William J. Scott and Comptroller, George W. Lindberg, have moved to eliminate local roadblocks to state financial assistance to the Chicago Transit Authority and downstate mass transit systems, to be used to provide reduced fares for students and the elderly.

Scott and Lindberg made a request to the governor and legislative leaders to call a concurrent special session of the legislature on Oct. 15 for corrective legislation eliminating legal doubts which have arisen over the appropriations made for mass transit relief.

In addition, Scott announced that he will file an emergency bill case directly in the Illinois Supreme Court seeking to establish the validity of the $17,500,000 in appropriations which are in question.

In the meantime, Comptroller Lindberg has asked the director of the Department of Transportation, Langhorne Bond, to certify that losses to the transit systems have in fact occurred. Such loss is required under the legislation as it now stands. The certification must be made before the suit can be filed.

Scott and Lindberg asked the General Assembly to give prompt and careful consideration to the requirements of the new Constitution with respect to the legislative appropriation of public funds.

Colonial Haven Nursing Home to open next month

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Staff Writer
Colonial Haven Nursing Home, Inc., a new care facility for 120 residents, will open here early next month. The facility, located at 3900 Stearns Ave., will employ about 100 full and part-time workers including registered and licensed practical nurses.

A state inspection of the nearly completed building is tentatively scheduled tomorrow and if approval is granted, an open house is planned early next month.

When opened, the complex will offer full medical, recreational and food services in addition to a beauty and barber shop, a religious chapel, an arts and crafts room, a physical therapy room and other facilities.

A bright color scheme has been used throughout the building with bright, wide stripes along the corridors and light colors in the rooms. Each resident's room contains a three-color mural on one wall. Recreational facilities have modern, bright flower designs on the walls and carefully planned lighting throughout the building adds to the overall brightness of the atmosphere.

Duane Pope, who is to become administrator of the building, said four attending physicians will visit residents regularly and will be on call at all times. In addition, registered and licensed practical nurses will be on duty in the building 24 hours each day.

Other specialists will conduct physical therapy and rehabilitation activities programs. Activity directors will guide arts and crafts programs, games and recreation.

When not engaged in structured activities, residents may make use of three patient lounges, an outside patio or a large living room. Each resident's room is provided with individual heating and air conditioning units which can be adjusted to the occupant's preferences. Music is available throughout the building, including the residents' rooms.

Pope said applications now are being accepted at the facility, or by calling him at 531-300. Medicare, private pension and insurance plans are accepted.

NEARING COMPLETION at 3900 Stearns Ave. is the Colonial Haven Nursing Home. A state inspection to approve the facility is planned tomorrow and an open

Walker amends coal ban repeal

Gov. Dan Walker on Monday amended House Bill 763 which would have repealed a ban on use of high-sulfur coal.

As a result of the governor's action, the Environmental Protection Agency will submit new standards for high-sulfur coal emissions to the Pollution Control Board.

The board will hold statewide hearings so that new regulations can be put into effect in time to meet federal air quality standards prior to the 1975 federal deadline, Gov. Walker said.

He added, "I am confident new standards can be written which will benefit the economy of Southern Illinois. Help ease the energy crisis and at the same time protect the air we breathe."

Illinois must comply with federal air pollution standards by January 1975, or the federal government will step in and take over regulation of emissions. If the bill had been signed, the federal government would have stepped in immediately to enforce its standards, the governor said.

Another change the governor recommended to the General Assembly confines the bill's provisions to high-sulfur coal. The bill as passed would have stopped any enforcement of Rule 204 of the Air Pollution Control Regulations, Walker related.

As amended, the bill will allow the board to enforce standards under Rule 204 which do not apply to the burning of high-sulfur coal—such as emission of acid mists into the atmosphere.

The governor deleted a provision requiring a full year of error-free testing of pollution prevention devices before a coal-burning firm could be regulated.

He said the provision would have allowed indefinite delays in air pollution regulation since there is no current requirement to install or test the anti-pollution devices.

If enacted as passed, the bill would have placed $1.7 million of federal anti-pollution funds for Illinois in jeopardy, Walker contended.

Student finance sources outlined

A comprehensive listing of sources for student financial assistance is contained in a new booklet from the office of Illinois Superintendent of Public Instruction Michael J. Bakalis.

The publication, "Financial Aids to Illinois Students," is designed for students who seek help in financing college or other post-high school studies. Five copies are being distributed to each high school and junior high school in the state so students can have access to the information in school libraries or through counselors, principals and others.

Listings in the booklet, which number more than 350, cover scholarships, fellowships, traineeships, grants, loans and educational assistance for veterans and dependents. The listings include data about qualifications, benefits and when and where to submit applications.

Also included is a directory of Illinois colleges and universities, specialty colleges, adult education centers, manpower training programs, and professional and semi-professional private vocational schools.

Another section contains broad information about enrollment, tuition, financial aids and student employment at schools of higher learning in Illinois.

The booklet was prepared with the help of colleges, universities, foundations, business organizations and especially the American Legion, which granted permission to reprint its "Need a Lift?" publication on career and educational opportunities.

Inquiries about the financial aids booklet are being directed to Thomas J. Denny, Scholarship Section, Office of Public Instruction, 302 State Office Building, Springfield, Ill. 62706.

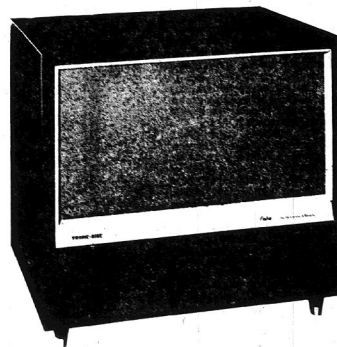

Steel industry employment up

Domestic steel industry employment climbed for the ninth month in a row during July, to reach its highest level in over two years, a new American Iron and Steel Institute report shows. 520,500 persons were engaged in the production and marketing of steel during the month.

This was a jump of 5,000 persons from June. It also was the highest monthly employment total since the 535,600 figure reported in June 1971. During July, steel producers paid $548,725,000 in wages and salaries, bringing the total of such payments through the first seven months of 1973 to $3,832,017,000.

Many new state labor laws signed

Gov. Dan Walker on Monday announced his approval of a new Illinois minimum wage of $1.75 an hour beginning Jan. 1, 1974. The existing state minimum is $1.60.

The new rate is contained in House Bill 312, which Gov. Walker signed.

He also reported his approval of eight other bills affecting working people and said he would approve two more— including one barring use of strikebreakers— if the General Assembly makes specific changes.

Gov. Walker said the effective minimum wage would be $1.60 an hour until Congress succeeds in raising the federal minimum wage above that figure.

The new provision in Illinois law prohibits a higher state minimum wage than the federal minimum wage, now $1.60.

President Nixon last week vetoed an increase in the minimum wage to $2.30.

The bill Gov. Walker signed raises the minimum wage:

- to $1.75 starting Jan. 1, 1974.
- to $1.50 starting Jan. 1, 1975.
- to $2.10 starting Jan. 1, 1976.

For workers under 18 the present $1.25 an hour minimum is raised:

- to $1.40 starting Jan. 1, 1974.
- to $1.55 starting Jan. 1, 1975.
- to $1.75 starting Jan. 1, 1976.

Gov. Walker said he will approve House Bill 311 barring use of strikebreakers during work stoppages if the legislature agrees with certain specific changes.

He suggested removing provisions which he said would constitute "an attack on the trade union movement in Illinois."

Gov. Walker said he was asked to change the bill by its sponsor, Rep. Thomas J. Hanahan (D., McHenry), and by labor leaders throughout the state.

The provisions he removed in his amendatory veto would:

- define labor disputes too narrowly.
- Such a narrow definition "has no place in the law of a great industrial state," the governor said.

He said without the change, Illinois would become the first state with statutory definitions suggesting that labor disputes or labor unions be limited to situations involving only one employer or one location.

—Prohibit use of professional picketers.

Gov. Walker said the prohibition would be a "threat to organized labor because it could be the basis for keeping a business agent off the picket line."

Gov. Walker said:

"Full collective bargaining rights are necessary for the continued economic well being of Illinois commerce and industry."

"A practice which interferes with the collective bargaining process—such as employment of strikebreakers—jeopardizes not only the labor movement but the entire economy of Illinois."

"The bill as passed had serious defects."

"While one provision would mean progress for the labor movement, the entire bill would have meant two or three steps backward."

"I have been asked to change the bill. The sponsor has made that request and so have a number of responsible labor leaders."

"The changes I am making preserve and broaden the prohibition against strikebreakers. That was the intent of the legislation. I am removing the features that would be detrimental to organized labor."

Gov. Walker said he was also returning House Bill 1471 with a change recommended by its sponsor, Rep. E. J. "Zeke" Giorgi (D., Rockford).

The bill raises ceilings for payment under the Unemployment Compensation Act from $21 to $26 for a person without dependents, from $74 to $82 for a worker with dependent spouse, from $80 to $88 for a worker with one child, from $87 to $95 for two children, from $90 to $98 for three children, and from $97 to $105 for four or more children.

The bill was amended to delete a provision that would have suspended unemployment payments from Sept. 9 through Nov. 4.

The other bills Gov. Walker approved are:

- House Bill 313 (Hanahan)—penalizes employers for failure to make contributions to employee retirement funds or provide other fringe benefits by terms of a collective bargaining agreement. Violation of the act is a misdemeanor punishable by confinement for up to six months and a fine of up to $500.
- House Bill 1525 (Rosen)—recreates the Commission on Labor Laws, consisting of eight legislators and four public members to be selected by the majority and minority leadership of the General Assembly.

The commission is to study the advisability of consolidating labor laws into one code, coordination of administrative departments, and the issue of collective bargaining legislation for public employees.

- House Bill 1532 (Rep. Allan L. Schoeberlein, R., Aurora)—consolidates and improves provisions of existing statutes dealing with payment of wages, giving employees better guarantees of being able to collect pay with assistance from the Department of Labor.
- House Bill 1568 (Hanahan)—requires installation of safety glass in the windows of railroad locomotives and cabooses, prior to June 1, 1975. All locomotive and caboose windows replaced after July 1, 1974 must also be of the safety glass type.
- House Bill 1631—(Giorgi)—makes changes in the Unemployment Compensation Act, required by The U. S. Department of Labor, so that when a claim for benefits is based on wages paid an individual in more than one state, the "base period" and "benefit year" mean that period as defined by the state in which the benefits are paid.

The bill also excludes "additional benefits" from "regular benefits" in determining if an individual can qualify for extended benefits.

- House Bill 1640 (Schoeberlein)—Extends the maximum work period of six days per week to all Illinois employees, except federal workers, those employed part time, and employees working in an emergency situation.

The bill also requires a minimum of 25 minutes off for a meal period, no earlier than three hours nor later than five hours after the start of the work day.

—Senate Bill 221 (Sen. John J. Nimrod, R., Skokie) guarantees anonymity for employees who request a safety inspection by the state Department of Labor at the site of employment.

Federal guidelines require this guarantee.

—Senate Bill 220 (Nimrod) amends the Occupational Health and Safety Act to include state and municipal employees, farm workers and coal miners in coverage by the act. The bill also restricts dissemination of records of employee medical examinations.

Firemen's fund transferred

The Granite City Council Monday night enacted an ordinance under which the city will administer a fire department insurance fee fund which previously was handled by the members of the fire department and used by them to purchase equipment, uniforms and supplies.

The measure provides that the insurance fees which are paid by insurance companies on the basis of 2 per cent of the premiums they collect in the city, hereafter shall go into the Fireman's Pension Fund, administration of which is directed by the City Council.

Several aldermen claimed that a check of expenditures were made without bidding.

George Smolich, a spokesman for the firemen, defended the firemen's administration of the funds and told the council that expenditures to which the council referred were made by former Fire Chief Earl Frozberger and not by the trustees of the accounts. The fire chief has full authority to use the funds, Smolich added.

The controversy over use of the insurance fee fund developed several months ago when City Treasurer Paul Rutledge said he would sign no more checks on the account until a legal determination was made of a policy under which several equipment-purchases were made out of the account from a fire department supply company which was owned by a city fireman.

The council said it learned also that when the fireman who owned the equipment company retired, the business was sold to another Granite City fireman from whom the firemen also bought supplies out of the account.

Because of the action taken Monday night, future purchases of uniforms, supplies or other items bought by the firemen with the insurance fees will have to be budgeted by the city and paid for out of regular accounts.

Smolich told the council that income from the insurance fees amount to about $15,000 or $16,000 per year.

Medical technologist field still suggested

Despite today's crowded market of medical technologists, Norman Davis, adviser of the medical technology program at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, urges students with a keen interest in this field not to be discouraged.

It has been predicted that by 1975 there will be four times as many medical technology majors nationally as there will be places in the hospitals for them. However, Davis says that "if the student is strongly motivated and makes good grades there are still going to be jobs. There are plenty of jobs outside metropolitan area. But in the cities, which are more attractive to young people, there is a great deal of competition."

The U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics foresees a 90 per cent increase in job opportunities in laboratory fields by the beginning of the next decade.

"This increase in need is predicted in the anticipation that the federal government will be supporting a great deal of the hospital care programs," Davis explained, "and that training programs will be developed by the government through allied health professions, personnel training and special training grants, which will require additional manpower needs."

The medical technology major must take a three-year program of course work at the university and then one year of internship in a hospital school of medical technology. Upon completion of the internship, the student receives a bachelor of science degree from SIUE.

There are more students majoring in medical technology locally and nationally than can be accommodated for clinical training, Davis points out. "The hospital schools commonly have space for six to 18 students each year."

"Since this situation is expected to continue, acceptance into an internship is more competitive than it once was. The student must have a C-plus average in science courses to warrant consideration," Davis said.

Although most medical technologists are women, Davis says it is an excellent field for men.

"Most medical technology work is done in hospitals. The starting salary in St. Louis metropolitan area hospitals is about $750 per month. In industry it is possible to start at $10,000 annually."

The medical technology program at SIUE began about five years ago. All graduates have been placed in hospitals, most of them in this metropolitan area.

Davis, an associate professor of biology at SIUE, suggests some alternatives to medical technology training which can be accomplished with minor modifications of the student's program with the consent of the biology faculty.

"He can complete the bachelor of arts degree in biology and concentrate in microbiology and/or chemistry."

"Employment can be found in the same organizations that employ medical technologists, as well as a broader array of career opportunities which are not medically oriented. He may be motivated toward graduate study in an area of biology or chemistry."

Youth aid program explained

Operation at "Aid, Inc." a youth center at the Collinsville United Presbyterian Church, specifically designed to combat the drug problem, were explained to members of the Ladies Circle at a meeting at the First United Presbyterian Church, 2nd Street and Delmar Avenue.

Guest speakers were Mrs. Cindy Welch, who serves as a counselor at the center, and Miss Myrna Albertson, who supervises a "hot line" project there for those needing immediate aid.

The center workers explained that the youth facility has been in operation for the past six months. About 30 Collinsville residents initiated the project, with the center now administered by a 15-member advisory board.

Operating expenses are financed by businessmen in the community and by various organizations from the Collinsville area. The facility is open 24 hours a day, the women said.

Mrs. Merlin Hiscott introduced the guest speakers. The meeting was opened by Mrs. Marvin Eddington, Coterie president, and the club collect was given by Mrs. Walter Johnson.

The pledge of allegiance was led by Mrs. Eddington and the group sang "Illinois," accompanied by Mrs. E. F. Reiske at the piano.

Plans were made to send a contribution to the United Way drive, and Mrs. E. H. Theis and Mrs. T. C. Auderheide agreed to serve as volunteer workers in the Mobile Meals program from Oct. 15 through Oct. 19.

Mrs. George Filcoff was hostess at the September meeting. Program chairman at the Oct. 4 session will be Mrs. James Fox, with Mrs. Theis serving as hostess.

Hicks-Duke nuptials

The Rev. Bob Worley performed a double ring ceremony on Sept. 18 at 7:30 in the evening, uniting in marriage Miss Betty Catherine Duke and Ronnie Duke Hicks. The service took place at Suburban Baptist Church.

Miss Leslie Houser presided at the organ, playing "Theme from Romeo and Juliet," "Theme from Love Story," "We're Only Just Begun" and "Color My World."

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Duke, 2205 Wilson Ave. The groom is a son of Mrs. Mary Lou Bailey, 2554 Iowa St., and James E. Hicks of Granite City.

For her wedding, the bride chose a Caustilly lace gown designed with a high scalloped neckline edged with a lace ruffle and bands. The fitted bodice had long tapered sleeves trimmed with a matching ruffle at the wrists.

Her beautiliant skirt fell gracefully into a chapel length train.

A lace headpiece secured her full length veil of bridal illusion and she carried a bouquet of white flowers and greenery.

Maid of honor Miss Karen Duke, the bride's sister, and bridesmaids, Mrs. Rick Bettis, also a sister, and Miss Lori Houser, were dressed alike.

Their gowns were fashioned with aqua blue Empire bodices featuring round necklines, enhanced with stand-up collars, and long sleeves. The tapered skirts were created of aqua blue and willow green striped fabric and made with ruffled flounces at the hemlines.

Each held a bouquet of white daisies encircled with greenery.

Jean Marie Dodson, the flower girl, wore a frock similar in style to the adult attendants' dresses. Jeffrey Criley served as the ringbearer.

The groom chose his brother, Jim Hicks, as best man.

Eddie Duke, a brother of the bride, and Steve Kovack were groomsmen. Bill Vest and Ron Whitt served as ushers.

Mrs. Duke selected a formal length gown of aqua blue knit complemented with white accessories and a white daisy and carnation corsage.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Bailey, was attired in a pink and white dress. She wore a corsage of daisies and carnations.

Mrs. Jim Hicks registered the guests at a reception given at the Long Lake Firemen's Hall immediately following the ceremony.

Minerva Women sponsor children

Three Quad-City children who are physically handicapped will attend the Easter Seal Society's summer camp in Godfrey under sponsorship of the Minerva Women's Club.

Club members meeting at the home of Mrs. Fred Mercer, 67 Karen Drive, also planned to assist the camp program with a contribution and voted to send a donation to the United Way drive.

As a fund raising project, the club will sponsor a rummage sale from 8 a.m. until 2 p.m. Saturday at 2659 Grand Ave., Mrs. Mercer announced.

The hostess served a dessert course to conclude the meeting. Among those present were Mesdames Harold Mercer, Jack Solberger, Kenneth Rapp, Keith Parker, Frank Kraus, Charles Weiss, Alan Skirball, Louis Brusatti, William Hodge, Patrick Busch, Kurt Merz, Alex Tarpol, Charles Kohl, Paul Fraley, Billy Terrell, Clem Ittgen and Helen Peterson.

MRS. NEAL KELSO, the former Miss Betty Dick, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rhessa E. Dick, 919 Twenty-fourth St. She was married on Sept. 1 at Central Christian Church, 2020 Johnson Road. Her husband is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Kelso of Troy, Ill. (John Richardson Photo)

Attend AAUW conference

"Getting Ourselves Together" was the theme of a special conference on "working relationships" designed for leaders of the Illinois Division, American Association of University Women (AAUW), and held during the weekend at the First United Presbyterian Church in Belleville.

Representing the Granite City AAUW Branch were Mrs. R. L. Edwards, Miss Elsie Girard and Mrs. Alfred Page.

The conference, hosted by the Belleville AAUW Branch, featured a morning panel discussion to explore relationships between program components.

Panelists included members of the Illinois state division program development committee, with Dr. Linda Hartsock, AAUW program director, serving as moderator.

Afternoon workshop sessions were used to plan the four topic areas proposed for study during the next biennium.

The sessions focused upon—"Media: Issues in Communications"; "Dynamic Learning: Releasing Human Potential"; "Woman: Seeking for Self"; and "Global Interdependence: Budgeting for Earth."

Stallings PTA honors faculty

Four areas of interests to parents were discussed at Stallings Parent-Teacher Association's initial meeting of the 1973-74 school year. Edward Birneck, principal, also introduced faculty members, presenting each with a gift from the PTA unit.

Guest speakers in the program included Greg Schmeig, who described drug abuse problems in the area, and Mrs. Doris Votaw, a representative of the River Bluffs Girl Scout Council, who explained Girl Scout and Brownie activities and asked parents to serve as leaders in the school's scouting units.

Mrs. Vera Farrow, president of the Granite City PTA Area Council, briefly outlined council plans for 1973-74, offered assistance to unit officers in various projects and invited members to attend a potluck dinner at 6 p.m. today at Lake School.

Also speaking on the program was Marvin Ribbing, who requested volunteer workers to aid the Muscular Dystrophy fund raising drive.

Mrs. Wilma Bowen, PTA president, was in charge of the business session. She introduced Mrs. LaVon Counts, membership chairman, who reported that a membership drive will continue at the school through October.

Plans for an Oct. 25 Halloween carnival and chili supper at the school were announced by Mrs. Joyce Tomlinson, ways and means chairman. She said a skating party also was arranged for earlier this week.

The kindergarten class, taught by Mrs. Mary Davis, received an award for having the highest percentage of parents at the first meeting.

Gardenaires to receive State president Oct. 12

Mrs. Eugene J. Tamillio of Des Plaines, state president The Garden Club of Illinois, Inc., will visit here Oct. 12 and officially present the Fisher Garden Center plaque, a national council award, to the Gardenaires Garden Club of Granite City.

Plans for the visit were discussed at a meeting of the Gardenaires at the home of Mrs. Earl Glenn, 1629 Garfield Ave. Mrs. A. A. Malotki served as co-hostess at a dessert luncheon.

Mrs. C. E. Eads, president, was in charge of the business session and reported that Mrs. Glenn will represent the Gardenaires at the seven-state Central Region meeting in Des Moines, Iowa, this weekend.

Members attending in addition to those mentioned were Mrs. Abe Shannon, Mrs. Charles Kohl, Mrs. William Long and Mrs. Jerry Arbeliter.

Today, at the event, Mrs. Glenn arranged two displays, spotlighting garden centers and environmental improvement.

"Floral Art" is the focus of a permanent display at the Mini-Garden Information Center at the Granite City Public Library and features the work of famous painters, members were informed.

Mrs. Mary Kristian provided a program at the meeting, discussing "The Influence of Flowers and Foliage in Floor and Wall Coverings." She illustrated her talk with colorful samples.

Eight members answered roll call with pertinent facts on the shrub "Deutzia" and a plant sale was held after the meeting.

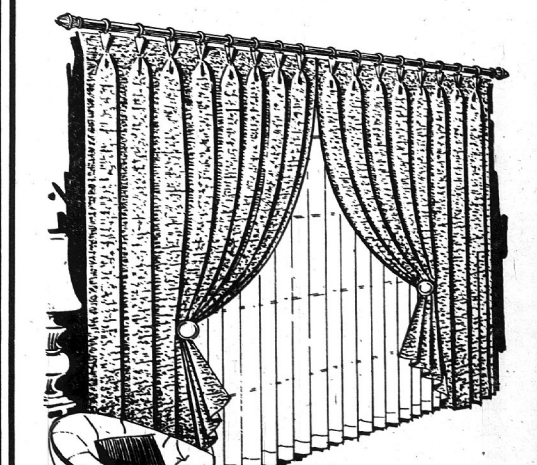

Members attending in addition to those mentioned were Mrs. Abe Shannon, Mrs. Charles Kohl, Mrs. William Long and Mrs. Jerry Arbeliter.

Grant aids senior citizens program

Belleville Area College has received a grant from the Federal Agency "ACTION" to develop a Retired Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP). The purpose of the program is to provide retired persons the opportunity to utilize their talents, experience, and skills in non-profit, public agencies or institutions.

Gene Verdu, director of the program said, "because of our society's attitude toward retired persons they are encouraged to do nothing during their retirement years."

"Human beings of any age soon get a feeling of worthlessness if they are not permitted to contribute."

"This then, in many instances, causes premature senility and even early death."

With this program we are going to give retired persons a sense of worth, an opportunity to work at schools, hospitals, nursing homes, government offices, or whatever job they would like to do."

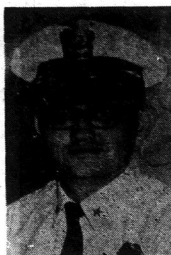

The volunteer must be 60 years of age or older and be interested in serving the community. All volunteers are expected to work a minimum of four hours per week and will be provided transportation to the job site.

The program also offers information on educational opportunities and services for the retired. Any person who is interested in becoming an RSVP volunteer may telephone Gene Verdu, 235-2700 Extension 281 or write to: Belleville Area College, RSVP, 2500 Carlyle Ave., Belleville, Ill. 62221.

In addition to RSVP Belleville Area College offers a pre-retirement planning course. This course is devised to assist persons to plan for their retirement.

It covers among others, the psychological, physiological, financial, legal, social, and residence considerations of retirement. The course has been offered at various industries and places of business. It is devised to meet the needs of the person depending on their background and job.

Any individual or businessman who would like to incorporate this program into his place of business or industry also may obtain information concerning pre-retirement planning by telephoning the RSVP office.

FRED BRIGHT JR.

FBI Academy graduate

Fred H. Bright Jr., a native Granite Cityan and former Madison resident who now is chief of police at East Alton, has graduated from a three-month session of the Federal Bureau of Investigation Academy with grades of five A's and one B. It was reported this week.

The training was conducted at the United States Marine Corps Base at Quantico, Va. Bright, who has a degree in applied science and law enforcement from Belleville Area College presently is a senior at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, majoring in human science. He attended Milliken University at Decatur, Ill., two years, was a member of the Army Security Agency for four years, a Madison County deputy sheriff from 1944 to 1956 and an Alton police officer from 1956 until 1972 when he became chief of police at East Alton.

Illinois law enforcement handbook is published

A pocket-sized "Illinois Law Enforcement Handbook," designed for quick reference by police officers in the field, has been prepared through the University of Illinois Police Training Institute at Urbana.

Co-authors are Prof. Duane R. Nedrud and Director Charles R. Taylor, both of the Police Training Institute, with Marguerite D. Obero. The book is published by L.E. Publishers, Inc., Chicago.

The 144-page handbook is 4 1/2 inches large, with a plastic cover, written in down-to-earth language stripped of official legalese, yet clearly stating each important aspect of the law being discussed. Many examples are included, plus to-the-point summaries of "do's" and "don'ts."

This is the first of what will be an annual series, Prof. Taylor said. It includes information on recent changes in the statutes, plus others stemming from decisions in the U.S. Supreme Court, the Illinois Supreme Court, and the Illinois Appellate Courts.

Pull-out forms are included for instant use—"Consent to Search," "Miranda Waiver," and others. A feature is that the handbook has the same divisions as the "Illinois Law of Criminal Investigation," an inclusive reference work, which found in most police departments and libraries of the State.

Prof. Taylor calls the new handbook "an indispensable tool in the pocket of every Illinois law enforcement officer."

A foreword explains, "The peace officer (as all law enforcement officers in Illinois are specifically designated by statute) has a duty to investigate. In recent years, increasingly, he has been held responsible for knowledge and application of rules so as to protect the rights of persons he is investigating."

The officers' failure to adhere to U.S. and Illinois Constitutional and statutory rules will result in such evidence being excluded. . . . The officer must be ready to act within the rules and standards or the investigation may be regarded as null and void.

The "Illinois Law Enforcement Handbook" can be obtained from L.E. Publishers, Inc., 612 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago 60611.

'Electric Banana' at Madison Oct. 1

The St. Louis Percussion Ensemble of the St. Louis chapter of Young Audiences will present a program, "The Electric Banana," at Madison High School for humanities classes Monday, Oct. 1.

The program is supported by a grant from the Illinois Arts Council and the Venice-Madison Fine Arts Committee. Harry Johnson is chairman of the local committee.

The St. Louis Percussion Ensemble is directed by Rich O'Donnell, principal percussionist with the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra. He will be assisted by John Kasica and Ken Whitlow, also members of the percussion section of the symphony.

Born in St. Louis, O'Donnell started piano and percussion at age of seven. He attended the St. Louis Institute of Music and North Texas State University. A member of N. T. U. jazz lab band for one and a half years, O'Donnell played the first jazz Mass in the U. S. there, broadcast on "World Wide 60's."

He started working as extra in the St. Louis Symphony in 1956 and became the principal percussionist of the orchestra in 1959. He presently is a percussion instructor at Washington University, Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and Missouri University, St. Louis.

He appeared with Mrs. Eleazar DeCarvalho (Jocelyne Oliveria) in concerts in the Midwest and in California, playing music for piano, percussion and tape, some of which was written especially for the duo.

In September 1966, he appeared in Rio and Sao Paulo, Brazil, as soloist with Mrs. Carvalho in a series of Avant-garde concerts.

O'Donnell played the U. S. premiere of Karel Salomon's Clockenspiel Concerts and Robert Wykes' Locations for Band and Percussion. He has appeared as soloist and in ensemble with the New Music Circle and the Studio for New Music. He currently is the musical director of the New Music Circle.

He also has written two books on advanced percussion playing and notation techniques.

RICH O'DONNELL

soon to be published. He also has written three film scores for educational films.

O'Donnell has directed and built many standard and original percussion instruments, and has one of the largest private collections of percussion instruments in the U. S.

He has been actively involved in jazz and recording studio work since 1955. He soloed with the St. Louis Symphony in a piece written jointly with Maestro DeCarvalho Feb. 27 and on March 1 of 1969, and repeated the performance in Mexico City the following week. He has led the Young Audiences Percussion Ensemble since 1967.

In 1972, he organized and now is leader of the St. Louis Percussion Quartet. O'Donnell created two sound-track tapes used at the Smithsonian Institute. He currently is involved in electronic music, including the building of a synthesizer.

O'Donnell was appointed percussion instructor for the new St. Louis Music Conservatory. He has been musical director for the New Music Circle since 1971.

"The Electric Banana" is designed to provide students with a direct introduction to electronic music. The program includes exposure to a real synthesizer, electronic vibes and tape recording techniques. The program will feature live virtuoso performances of pieces written for electronic instruments. A brief explanation of basic synthesizer functions and a chance to experience what changes will be made to the sound of their own voices via electronics.

"The Electric Banana" stresses the value of electronic music as a valid arts from rather than strange, funny sounds, according to O'Donnell.

Rites held for Wm. Dortch, 60

Funeral services were conducted Friday at the Milligan Funeral Home in Dover, Tenn., for William Lurton Dortch, 60, of Tennessee Ridge, Tenn., a former resident of Granite City.

Mr. Dortch lived in this area since 1936 and moved to Tennessee Ridge, Tenn., a few weeks ago. He retired Sept. 1 from National Lead Co., Granite City.

He died on Sept. 18 at the Trinity Hospital, Erin, Tenn. Burial was in Stewart County Memorial Gardens.

Born in Stewart County, Tenn., he also belonged to the Baptist Church there. Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Martha Mae Lemons Dortch; a son, James K. Dortch of Overland Park, Kan.; three brothers, James, Harry and Orman Dortch, all of Granite City; five sisters, Mrs. Mae Horn, Mrs. Lillian Fowler and Mrs. Wilma Rushing of Granite City, Mrs. Lorene Rougemont of Dover, Tenn., and Mrs. Mary Thelma Boyd of Tennessee Ridge, and six grandchildren.

Library grants raised

"The Lewis and Clark Library System will benefit to the tune of $105,225, under terms of two bills just signed by Governor Dan Walker."

Sen. Sam M. Vadalabene said last week. The bills, Senate Bill 613 and 614, provide an additional $2.6 million in grants to library systems throughout the state.

"It's a source of great pride that I sponsored these bills," Vadalabene said.

The bills provide that grants to the state's library systems will be increased from 50 cents to 70 cents per person residing in the district and from $18 to $25 per square mile within the district.

"The educational, recreational and cultural potential of our area will get a strong boost from these additional grants. I hope that all of our citizens will take full advantage of the improvements we'll be able to make in our libraries," Vadalabene concluded.

MORE STUDENT HOUSING AT SIUE—The Southern Illinois University Board of Trustees has authorized the treasurer of SIUE to issue a notice of sale and official statement for $5.9 million in University Facilities Revenue Bonds, Series F, to finance acquisition of additional single student housing at SIU at Edwardsville. The new student housing will be similar to existing Tower Lake apartment units shown, and will provide living space for approximately 1,000 single students. The existing units have a capacity of 400 single students and 148 families. Construction is expected to start this fall on the new housing, which will be located across the road to the right of the apartments shown in the aerial picture.

City proposes control of yard, garage sales

Granite Cityans who want to hold a yard sale or garage sale will have to acquire a city permit and will be limited to two such sales a year under an ordinance placed on first reading by the City Council Monday night.

The ordinance, which will be offered for final passage in Monday night's meeting, establishes a permit fee of $5 for any one sale which may last not more than two days. Only two such sales will be permitted in any one calendar year.

In addition, the bill requires that anyone conducting such "garage sales, porch sales, basement sales, yard sales and other similar types of sales" shall post the permit on the premises "in a conspicuous place so as to be seen by the public and the city inspector."

The ordinance gives the city inspector and the police the authority of entry "to any premises showing evidence of a personal property sale for the purpose of enforcement or inspection, and may close the premises from such a sale or arrest any person who violates the provision of this ordinance."

The bill provides a penalty of a $25 to $100 fine for violation of its terms. The bill asserts that "the City Council desires not to prevent but to regulate such sales for the safety and pleasure of its citizens."

Acting on a motion by Alderman Clyde Boyd, the council Monday night also authorized Mayor Paul Schulz to erect a notice board and a clock at major railroad crossings where long traffic tieups most frequently occur. The vote followed a plea by a member of the audience for council action to eliminate long delays by motorists at railroad crossings.

Schulz said he believed the best way to enforce the law requiring trains to clear grade crossings in ten minutes would be to put up boards posted with complete instructions for reporting violations. The board also would need a clock to permit motorists to time the trains, he said.

A resolution in which the aldermen declared themselves in favor of the establishment of an area Junior College was approved by the council.

The council approved a $300 bill for the G. H. Sternberg Contracting Co. for installation of a drainage pipe at Johnson Road and Lindell Boulevard in connection with widening and resurfacing of Johnson Road. The bill was separated from the claim list a week ago and held over until Monday night's meeting for an explanation of the cost.

Purchase of a new car for the detective division from City Dodge Co. on a bid of $4,242 for a 1974 model was approved on a motion by Alderman Gerald Parmley. The bid was higher than a $3,514 offer received from Mathews Chevrolet Co., but Parmley said the higher bid was the best offer because the Mathews bid was for a 1973 model.

CHILD INJURED The auto of Dorothy Hartard, 2801 Fortune Drive, and Marilyn Beyer, 3037 Buxton Ave., collided at Faith and Fortune avenues Monday Jacqueline Beyer, 6 months old, also of 3037 Buxton Ave., suffered minor injuries in the crash.

The FORUM

EXAMPLE OF SERVICE BY STATE SENATOR

To the Editor: Since we have spent some time recently in Southwestern Arizona in the town of Yuma, I thought it would be good to recount an interesting experience that happened to me while there.

During our stay, we met a prominent building contractor who said he had been trying for two years to get a delayed birth certificate from one of the counties in Illinois where he was born.

He had written to the county, to the state, to the Social Security and to Washington. He had been told, I thought, a conclusive and authoritative account of his beginnings but had no success whatever.

He asked what, if anything, could be done in his situation since he wished to make some trips abroad and needed a birth certificate for this purpose.

Knowing as I did the fine record of our state senator, Sam Vadalabene, I placed a call to the state capital. When Mr. Vadalabene was available, I told him the problem.

I forwarded to him the voluminous information I had, which had been turned down by the state, and within a short time the man received his birth certificate.

Needless to say, the builder was grateful and I also had a great feeling of satisfaction to realize once again that Senator Sam was willing to hear the needs of those who many times do not get a hearing today.

I shall never cease to feel a sense of gratification toward Senator Sam for his deep devotion to the electorate of our senatorial district.

Chrysler New Yorker: A totally new expression of an idea that has never changed. The idea: a car based on the philosophy of great engineering. The expression: this year's Chrysler New Yorker. New styling, new features and a continued heritage of uncompromising quality.

Imperial: First in a new generation of luxury motor cars. Never have we had an Imperial like this. Totally redesigned, inside and out. Totally restyled, inside and out.

Granite Chrysler says: "Hey, have we got a show for you!"

Chrysler Newport: Out of a heritage of great engineering comes a car of superb comfort and beauty. Refined from front to rear and top to bottom with handsome new styling, rich, tasteful appointments. Chrysler New Yorker Brougham.

Chrysler Newport: A luxury car that's surprisingly affordable. When you consider that Chrysler runs on regular gas, gives you an Electronic Ignition System as standard and that, for all its elegance and luxury, Chrysler is surprisingly affordable ... aren't you farther ahead with Chrysler?

C'mon in see the new ones. CHRYSLER Plymouth

In Memoriam 33
In loving memory of JAMES "PEPPER" ELMORE, killed September 27, 1969. Remembrance is a golden chain. Death tries to break; but all in vain. To have, to love, and then to part. MOTHER, SISTERS and FAMILIES. 32 27

In loving memory of BENJAMIN LEE BOSWORTH, JR., Sept. 29, 1966. In our home he is fondly remembered. Sweet memories cling to his name. Those who loved him in life remember him. Still love him in death just the same. FAMILY 32 27

Illinois airport called answer to St. Louis economic problems

Building a new airport at the Columbia-Waterloo, Ill., site is essential if the St. Louis metropolitan area is going to solve its serious economic problems, Arven H. Saunders, executive director of the St. Louis Metropolitan Area Airport Authority, said Monday. Speaking at a meeting on the airport question sponsored by the League of Women Voters of St. Louis, Saunders pointed to various indicators of the area's sluggish economic performance. The meeting was at the Heritage House, 2800 Olive St.

"Unless the facts are faced, unless there is prompt and vigorous action," he warned,

"the implications for the future are not bright."

"Continuation of the present trend can only lead to worse problems. Opportunities for future generations will be diminished."

"Planners for the area have stressed that St. Louis must capitalize on its position as a transportation center or there probably will not be enough employment for the projected population in the 1990s and 1990s."

Pointing out that Kansas City and Dallas-Fort Worth have already built major new airports, Saunders said that "St. Louis desperately needs to get a new airport started. Planning and construction will take a minimum of eight years."

"Even with the best possible expansion of Lambert Field — under the proposal now being prepared for federal authorities — it will be only with the help of considerable luck that St. Louis can remain a competitive air center during the coming decade."

"And Lambert will be undergoing some phase of construction throughout most of that time, trying just to keep up."

"With the Columbia-Waterloo location the St. Louis area is blessed with one of the finest sites in the world for a major airport — a site that is conveniently located and does not impose environmental problems."

"In contrast with this, airport planners in other areas must contend with locations that are 40 to 50 miles and more from the population center."

"For the St. Louis region — both the Missouri and the Illinois portions — creation of the new Illinois airport promises to be the most significant development in more than 200 years of St. Louis history."

"The only alternatives — inaction, delay or some sort of super-saturated maze at Lambert — will spell further decline for the St. Louis area."

"The choice is fundamental — a second-class future or an air of greatness."

Small suppliers exempt from state filing order

The Illinois Department of Finance has just issued rules to implement and enforce Gov. Daniel Walker's Executive Order Number 5 (7-73).

The order requires disclosure of political contributions by key persons in firms doing business with the state or regulated by certain state agencies.

It provides that the Department of Finance will "from time to time as may be necessary and appropriate, issue rules to implement and enforce this order."

The order was issued Aug. 20. Among the first rules issued by the department are:

—Any person or entity pre-qualified to do business with a state agency as of Aug. 20, 1973, must file a timely disclosure statement.

—Any supplier who does less than an aggregate of $1,500 worth of business with a state agency in any fiscal year is exempt from filing.

—A disclosure statement will remain active for a maximum of six months from the date of filing, at which time a new filing will be required. In the event that changes have taken place between the date of filing and the date of the purchase transaction, a supplement to the disclosure statement must be filed prior to the purchase transaction becoming effective.

—Any regulated business or supplier who does not include in the disclosure statement contributions by all key persons must list these key persons. The disclosure statement will not be deemed complete until all these key persons have filed statements with the Department of Finance.

John McElroy dies at 60

John McElroy, 60, of 3316 Village Lane, a patient at St. Elizabeth Hospital for two months, died there at 7 a.m. Tuesday.

Born in Chicago, he resided in this area 50 years.

Mr. McElroy was a member of St. Elizabeth Roman Catholic Church. He retired in 1972 as a machinist helper from General Steel Industries where he was

To cut fee for elderly

Secretary of State Michael J. Howlett has reminded Illinois senior citizens that the Illinois drivers license fee for persons 65 years old and over will be reduced effective Jan. 1, 1974.

The fee, reduced from $8 to $4, is the result of House Bill 1428 which was sponsored by Representative Celeste M. Siehl (R-Belleville) and actively supported by Secretary Howlett.

The bill passed both houses of the legislature and became law upon signature of the bill by Governor Dan Walker on Sept. 12.

"I am happy to have been able to participate in this effort to be of assistance to Illinois senior citizens," Secretary Howlett said.

Jaycees developing alcoholism program

Illinois Jaycees will take the first step toward a statewide alcoholism information program when they meet in Springfield for a three-day planning workshop at the Ramada Inn tomorrow through Sunday, according to Dr. LeRoy P. Levitt, state director of mental health.

Limit drivers' night tests

Night road tests given at drivers license examination stations until 8 p.m. on Wednesdays during the daylight saving time period will be discontinued on Oct. 28, Michael J. Howlett, secretary of state, said Tuesday.

"Wednesday night road tests used Oct. 28 will be given according to daylight hours available at the discretion of station managers," Howlett said.

Exam stations will be open Wednesday nights after Oct. 28 for inside testing only.

Peanut sale nets $925

Kiwanian Bill Hayes, chairman of the peanut sale for the Granite City Kiwanis Club, told the group at its Monday meeting at Charlie's Restaurant that a net profit of $925 was made on the peanut sale during the weekend.

He said that 15 members and their wives were at five locations. This year's sale was the most successful ever held, he said.

The money will be used for civic projects in the area.

The annual club picnic held this week at Conrad Bauer's farm near Edwardsville was attended by 60 members and wives. Guests at the picnic were Mr. and Mrs. George Chapman, Mrs. Vivian Wolfe and Mr. and Mrs. Chris Hamilton.

The next club activity to include wives will be the installation of officers Oct. 15 at Charlie's Restaurant.

Roy Green, newly elected regional vice-president of Kiwanis District 14, made his first official visit to the club.

Kiwanian John Feder of Albuquerque, N. M., and brother of Roy Feder, made a short report on his club and its activities.

The group was reminded of the "Save Our Sight" program scheduled Oct. 6 at Coolidge School.

Demo Dinner Dance Oct. 21

The annual John F. Kennedy champagne dinner dance sponsored by the Madison County Democratic Committee will be held Sunday, Oct. 21, at the Venice-Madison American Legion Home, it was announced today.

The $25-per-plate dinner has been a long-standing event to help finance Democratic party activities. This year's program will include a cocktail hour beginning at 4:30 p.m. Dinner will be served at 6 p.m. Political dignitaries will be introduced at 7:30 p.m.

Walter T. "Buck" Simmons, chairman of the Madison County Democratic Central Committee, said that seating will be limited and that reservations should be made as early as possible. Reservations may be made with Sam Wolf, secretary, 1506 Johnson Road.

CAR TAKEN FROM YARD

The 1965 car of John Holik, 1828 Cleveland Blvd., was stolen from his back yard before 6:55 a.m. Tuesday, the owner reported.

New... Introducing the Wonder Product of the Space Age
THE MOST PERFECT HOME SIDING EVER PRODUCED
THE LUXURIOUS BEAUTY OF BRICK FOR THE LIFE

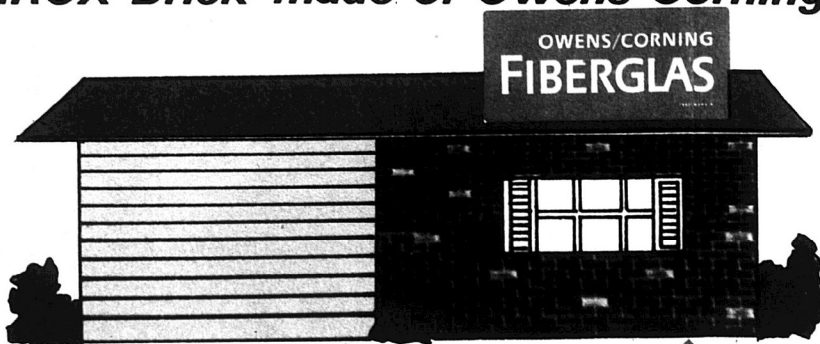

AMROX Brick made of Owens Corning Fiberglas

END COSTLY REPAIRS . . .
UP-GRADE YOUR HOME.

You CAN step up from this to this! NOW!! Ease of application with Fiberglas beauty turns frame houses into permanently beautiful HOMES.

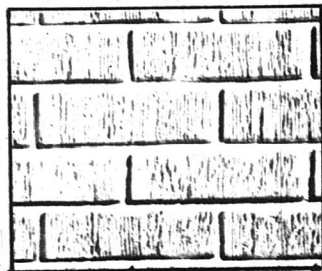

Why spend hard-earned time anymore just keeping up with season-to-season maintenance, when you can apply Amrox Fiberglas Brick and end the problems inherent to Wood Siding? You can, and we'll show you how.

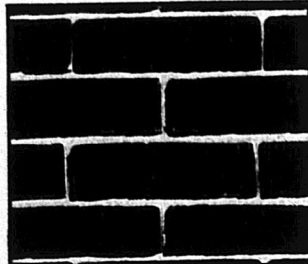

CHANGE THIS ↑

TO THIS! ↑

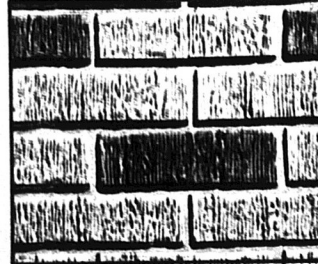

After years of research and development Amrox brick is now available to the American home owner. 1,000,000 pounds of hydraulic pressure forms this beautifully permanent brick made from patterns created by fine artisans. Real brick materials, a special blend of colors, and rugged Owens Corning fiberglas are bonded into Amrox brick. The result is a water-proof, rich, brick texture that doesn't chip or peel or rot in normal use. The unique patented design creates a pattern so aesthetically perfect that it looks more like brick than brick itself. Only those who know the cost know it's not brick, it adds the final touch of masonry beauty to any home.

Magnavox

solid-state color TV

...the Color TV that adjusts its own picture to changing room light
...automatically!

The Videomatic color system does it:

In fact, it's a "one-button" color system that does everything you'd expect . . . plus more! Like automatically adjusting its own picture to changing room light—to give you the proper balance of color, brightness and contrast—day or night . . . so you get a sharp, clear picture in any room, any light! And, because controls are factory preset—at the touch of a finger—you enjoy a wonderfully bright, sharp, clear picture. However, even with the preset controls, you (not a service technician) can still adjust the picture to suit your own taste or local signal conditions—by simply turning a knob!

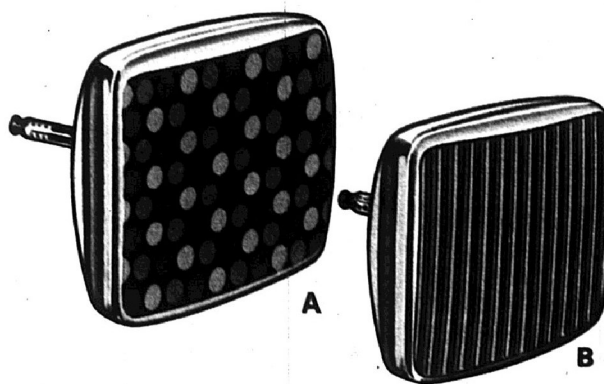

Magnavox 100% Solid-State modular chassis

100% solid-state is the most reliable TV you can buy because there's not a single tube to cause damaging chassis heat . . . or to burn out. The solid-state components last a long, long time—much longer than tubes. As a result, you have greater reliability . . . and more dependable performance. With plug-in circuit panels, mini-circuit modules, integrated circuits and many plug-in transistors, a Magnavox Solid-State Modular Chassis offers major servicing advantages—speed, convenience and low cost. Should servicing ever become necessary, it can usually be done right in your own home . . . quickly and economically.

Magnavox high reliability

... is assured because only Magnavox, of the five leading manufacturers of solid-state Color TV, subjects every solid-state Color TV (not just a small sampling off an assembly line) to a 24-hour preconditioning high-stress, high voltage operational test—to simulate the critical "breaking-in" period in your home. And—there's even more testing . . . and more quality control inspections . . . to insure that each and every Magnavox solid-state Color TV shipped from the factory has passed the demanding High Reliability Test . . . because Magnavox wants your Color TV to work perfectly at their place before it gets to your place! When you buy a Magnavox solid-state Color TV—console, portable or table model—you can be assured that it is one of the most highly reliable on the market today. Why not discover for yourself the wonderful difference of a Magnavox? High reliability is just one part of that difference. There are many more!

ALL PRICES SHOWN HEREIN ARE SUBJECT TO ECONOMIC STABILIZATION RULINGS IN EFFECT AT THE TIME OF THE ACTUAL PURCHASE.

Magnavox Super BrightTM picture tubes

... give brighter, richer color and more precise detail than ever before in Magnavox's history. A. The black Matrix Tube—in all Magnavox 25" (diagonal) consoles . . . has precise red, green and blue phosphor dots completely surrounded by a black Matrix to give you better picture contrast and far more brightness than offered in conventional tubes. B. Precision In-Line Tube—in all Magnavox 17" and 19" (diagonal) color portables and table models—eliminates dynamic convergence adjustments for improved reliability. As illustrated, instead of dots, there are alternating vertical stripes of red, blue and green phosphors separated by a black Matrix. You see an apparently clearer, sharper, brighter picture—with much greater resolution than ever before. Advanced in design—it's lighter and shorter, too!

One Full Year Warranty on All 1974 Magnavox Color TV

ONE FULL YEAR PARTS and SERVICE. If anything goes wrong with your TV during the first year and it's the fault of Magnavox, it will be repaired—with no charge for labor or parts. And, if your picture tube becomes defective within two years, it will be exchanged for a new tube. In the first year, Magnavox pays for installation; in the second year, you pay for the installation.

VIDEOMATIC solid-state COLOR TV

diagonal

Although space-saving in size, these lovely consoles are very "large" in performance features and fine furniture styling! The same high degree of quality, reliability and performance as is found in larger Magnavox models is incorporated into these outstanding values. Each offers all the marvelous advantages of the Videomatic Color System—that does everything you expect from a "one-button" system . . . plus more! It even automatically adjusts the picture to give you the right balance of brightness, contrast and color—under any light conditions.

And they offer the proven reliability of a modular 100% solid-state chassis. Advanced Matrix picture tube technology, too! The ingenuity and innovative concepts of Magnavox designers are apparent in each model—for each is finely detailed and beautifully finished—on selected hardwood solids, hardboard and moulded non-wood materials. Discover for yourself the wonderful world of Magnavox . . . there is a magnificent difference!

Beautiful 12" Diagonal Magnavox Portable TV

...1 Full Year Warranty!

If anything goes wrong with your TV during the first year and it's the fault of Magnavox, it will be repaired—upon delivery to your authorized Magnavox dealer—with no charge for labor or parts. Replacement parts and picture tube may be new, or they may be rebuilt to meet Magnavox high quality standards. This warranty applies to models 5052, 5110 (on page 15) and to model 5011, at right.

Model 5011—is striking in its simplicity... and great in its performance. It has a predominantly solid-state chassis (only 3 vacuum tubes), Automatic Picture and Sound Stabilizers (Keyed AGC) and "Right-On" picture and sound. Other fine features include preset VHF Fine Tuning, a detachable sunshield for glare-free viewing in sun-filled or brightly lighted rooms... and even an earphone for private listening.

Only $99⁹⁵*

*Minimum Fair Trade Price—optional with dealers in non-Fair Trade states.
